EXT. EARLY MORNING SKYLAND STUDIO BACKLOT

HIGH WIDE SHOT OF THE BACK LOT, A GIANT WAR SET

Crew and production are scurrying about preparing for a huge shot. First day of primary shooting, starting on a very complicated and costly scene.

CAMERA ARCS WIDE SHOWING THE IMMENSITY OF THE SCENE THEN LANDS ON GROUP OF CREW, THE DIRECTOR, DP AND CAMERA CREW, GAFFER AND KEY GRIP AND SPECIAL EFFECTS CREW.

The crew is having a pre shoot meeting and game plan. An older tall man, the director of photography, with crazy white hair and thick glasses and wild eyes with frenetic energy stands with a pointer in front of a group of elaborate storyboards. He focuses his attention on his camera crew, A cam B cam C cam and their assistants.

D.P.
This is going to be incredible, absolutely incredible. There's no room for error on this one kids

He glares at his crew with his wild eyes, his white flowing outfit swirls around him, making him look like a mad scientist.

D.P. (CONT'D)
Todays budget is, what is it Stan

STAN
1.5 Million sir give or take a few thousands.

D.P.
1.5 Million holy shit, Stan are you fucking kidding! That's gotta be some kind of one day record or something! I need everyones A game today, we only get one shot at this scene. I know it's nuts, but thats how I work ladies and gentlemen, no fucking up on my watch. Lizzy, Lizzy my dear I'm taking a huge risk on you and your team, your my A cam team. Your on the frontline!

DP walks over to Lizzy and puts his arm around her while he's talking to her. Lizzy is a quite pretty twenty something, with brown long wavy hair. She is dressed in green army shorts black rock tee and army style boots.

The DP looks at her and the crew like children. He guides Lizzy around in circles while he's talking to her.

D.P. (CONT'D)
You need to capture the heat, the struggle, oh my god the struggle, and of course the death. The death, the death.. The futility of it all! In their eyes, their sweat, the fear, the anxiety the hate. I need it all!

He lets go of Lizzy, bends down a little gets close to her and looks directly into her eyes.

D.P. (CONT'D)
Do you get me my dear? Are we clear? I'm relying on you, this scene sets the tone for the rest of the shoot. The rest of you better be good!

He points a boney finger at the rest of the camera crew. Then spins Lizzy around places both hands on Lizzy's shoulders and looks intently into her eyes, getting super close to her face.

Don't fuck up, no pressure, but just don't fuck up.

Lizzy sweating profusely now, nods and appears scared as hell.

D.P. (CONT'D)
This is basically a oner, so don't ever leave your camera! Comprende? If you have to pee, pee in your fucking pants!

Everyone nods in agreement.

CUT TO:

EXT. CAMERA TENT

Camera crews are working feverishly on the cameras, Lizzy is pacing nervously. Larry grizzled looking but handsome is Lizzy's first camera assistant and boyfriend, loads up his bag seems calm and collected, his second camera assistant Mikey hands him extra film mags that he puts into his bag.

LARRY
Mikey don’t forget the extra prime lenses and my extra cans of air, it’s going to get dusty out there.

MIKEY
Right on Larry anything else?

LARRY
No I think we’re good, just stay by my side as close as possible, we’re going to have change lenses and mags on the fly.

Mikey loads up his bag and carts puts his tool belt on.

LARRY (CONT’D)
Hey Lizzy you good?

She looks at him with wild eyes

LARRY (CONT’D)
It’s a walk in the park, same old shit! I got your back babe, you got this.

Mikey looks at Larry concerned, Larry shakes his head at Mikey and gives him a look, lips the words shut the fuck up.

LIZZY
I have to go pee! Oh my god I’m so fucking nervous, what if I mess up or something?

LARRY
Your good, just point the camera at interesting shit, you’ll have Niko on the headset giving you directions, I’ll be there tapping your shoulder, I’ll help guide you around, just don’t take the camera off the rig, unless I grab it. Got it? Easy peasy.

LIZZY
Yeah thanks babe, you’re the best! I’ll be right back.

LARRY
Ok just hurry up, scene starts in 10. We’ll meet you on set.

Lizzy nods and runs off to the bathroom. Mikey and Larry load up their gear and head to the set.

As they enter the enormous set they show their badges to security and take their first designated position in the trenches. A PA comes by and gives them three walkie talkies. They both put their walkies on their belts and plug into their surveillance headsets. Larry starts getting the steady cam rig ready to move, Mikey is getting lenses ready

CUT TO:

INT. WOMENS BATHROOM

Lizzy is taking a piss, as she gets up her set badge falls off her belt and lands in the next stall. She doesn't notice and heads to the set.

CLOSE UP OF LIZZY'S BADGE THEN SHOT OF HER WALKING TO SET

CUT TO:

EXT. DAY ENTRANCE TO SET

A buzzer goes off as we hear 2 minutes to shooting. Lizzy rushes towards the entrance but is stopped by security.

GUARD 1
Can I see your badge please?

Lizzy fumbles around can't find her badge. Panics

LIZZY
I can't find it, but I'm A cam. I need to get in there!

GUARD 2
Sorry but we can't let you in without an I.D. You can go to the production office, they'll make you a new one.

LIZZY
What, I don't have time for that! Just let me in, radio Niko or someone from production, they'll tell you who I am!

The buzzer goes off with a flashing light.

GUARD 1
Sorry 2 minutes till shooting, get a badge then we can let you in when they cut.

LIZZY
No no no no no! What the fuck I need in now!

Lizzy attempts to walk past the guards, they stop her. She runs off back to the bathroom to find her badge in a rage.

CUT TO:

INT. TRENCHES DAY

Larry and Mikey hear the two minute warning and try to get Lizzy on the walkie, but she's not responding, because her walkie is with them.

MIKEY
Where the hell is Lizzy? Oh my god if she fucks this up for us! I know she's hot, but what do you see in her man, she's just using you!

Larry shoots Mikey an annoyed look, but knows he's right

LARRY
I have no idea where she is! We need to get ready, your pulling focus for me Mikey, you ready for this?

MIKEY
Hell yeah lets do this shit!

Mikey grabs Larry's focus puller and puts the camera on Larry's steady cam rig. Over the surveillance mic we hear the first AD.

MIC
We shoot in five. A camera are you guys ready?

Larry puts on the rig, makes a few adjustments, spins the camera around adeptly on the steady cam rig, practices a few movements, puts his hat on backwards, grins at Mikey, then starts to move into position

MIKEY
Yeah copy that, A camera is ready.

Mikey and Larry brace for action. A few of the main actors are in the trenches with them, they grab their guns and brace for action and stand on their first marks.

We hear action, as explosions go off, Larry gets amazing shots of the bombs going off, 50 calibre tracers flying by and the opposing army rushing the trenches.

MIC
Ok Lizzy now whip to the soldiers reaction.

With a flawless camera move Larry whips to the soldiers in front of him. He gets a shot of the main actors eyes and facial expressions, then he and Mikey follow the main character out of the trenches. They follow the soldier documenting his every move with precision and beauty.

MIC (CONT'D)
Ok A camera reload now while your behind the blown up tank.

Mikey reloads the camera and changes the battery in record time.

MIKEY
A camera set, ready to rock.

MIC
Copy A camera, roll camera prepare to move in 10 seconds

MIKEY
Copy

Larry and Mikey hear the countdown then move out with the hero of the story. As Larry follows the soldier bombs go off everywhere, fake bullets go wizzing by. The soldier stops, he see's three enemy soldiers running towards him. He shoots runs out of ammo. Larry quickly pans to the soldiers face, we see his fear and anxiety, sweat dripping from his face. He drops his rifle, takes out his handgun. Larry and Mikey dance with the hero soldier, documenting his every move, as he takes out the enemies. He starts to run. Larry and Mikey follow keeping him in perfect frame and focus.

MIC
Amazing A camera stay on him!

Hero soldier runs stops behind a burning jeep takes cover, he is being barraged with bullets. Larry captures everything.

MIC (CONT'D)
Ok A camera one more big push, then we go in and really start the dance!

Hero soldier makes his final push, runs dodges and kills enemies. A plane comes crashing in from the left of frame. Our hero dodges and jumps to safety landing in the mud. Larry and Mikey jump and run with him and capture this amazing stunt. We hear cut! People are screaming and cheering and clapping, actors are hugging each other. Mikey and Larry head to the camera tent just off set.

CUT TO:

EXT. DAY CAMERA TENT

Mikey takes the camera from Larry and puts it on the camera cart. Larry starts organizing the film mags and lenses. He hears crying behind him. Lizzy walks towards them from the back of the tent wiping off her eyes. As Lizzy is walking toward Larry and Mikey, Niko the DP, and the director are running at them from the opposite direction. Niko bee lines towards Lizzy, picks her up starts spinning her around in a bear hug. Crew stands around them cheering and clapping.

NIKO
That was fucking amazing! Some of the best operating I've ever had seen! You're a rock star Lizzy! Absolutely amazing, amazing talent.

Mikey looks at Larry, Larry gives Mikey the zip it sign. Mikey rolls his eyes throws down his tool pouch and walks off fuming.

CUT TO:

SHOT OF GUARD ONE AND TWO WALKING BY THE COMMOTION AT THE CAMERA TENT THEY BOTH GIVE EACH OTHER A QUIZZICAL LOOK BUT KEEP ON WALKING

CUT TO:

SHOT OF NIKO AND THE DIRECTOR STANDING IN FRONT OF LIZZY, THE CROWD OF WELL WISHERS STARTS TO DISPERSE.

Various crew and production people shake Lizzy's hand and pat her on the back.

DIRECTOR
Great work Lizzy! Awesome first half of the day!

Niko and the director hug Lizzy and walk off.

FADE OUT.

INT. CAMERA TENT NIGHT

Larry is logging all the footage of the day while Mikey angrily is cleaning gear. They both don't talk, working in silence. Mikey finishes up and grabs his personnel belongings and starts to walk off, thinks twice then walks over to Larry.

MIKEY
Hey man, you do what you have to do bro. I thinks it sucks and it's wrong, but whatever. You know shit always comes out in the wash. I still love you man, I owe my career to you, and will do whatever you say, but you know this shit ain't right. Anyway, have a good night bro, see you tomorrow.

Mikey gives Larry a bro shake and hug and walks off into the night. Lizzy is watching this interaction hidden from view. She approaches Larry. She gets up close to him, puts her lips close to his ear.

LIZZY
Babe I can't tell you how much I appreciate you! I will make this up to you somehow.

Lizzy kisses his ear and whispers in his ear.

LIZZY (CONT'D)
You are going to get a mind blowing surprise when you get home tonight. Don't stay here to late, love you.

Lizzy walks off sexily and blows Larry a kiss. Larry looks up at her while he's working and smiles at her. Larry finishes up.

CUT TO:

EXT. NIGHT FRONT OF STAGE 6

It's dark out and the studio seems like a ghost town as Larry walks through stages to get to his car. As Larry passes stage 6 he stops to tie his shoe and adjusts his backpack full of stuff.

As he’s bending down he notices smoke and an eery green light seep out of stage six. He notices what looks like a secret service officer instead on the normal stage security guard. The guard walks off answering his phone. Larry puts his stuff down by a nearby staircase and walks to the stage side door. His curiosity drives him. Strangely enough Larrys security badge allows him access to this side door.

CUT TO:

CLOSE UP OF STAGE SIX SIGN

CUT TO:

INT. NIGHT STAGE 6

Larry walks onto the stage, it appears to be a giant medical set with glass corridors which lead to some sort of lab. Larry notices two men in lab coats and hides behind a dissecting hallway. There’s no stage lights or normal things you would see on a film set.

LARRY
What the hell is this shit?

Larry mumbles to himself out loud. Larry keeps walking down the corridor towards the center of the stage. He comes to a staircase which leads down. He creeps down the staircase, and finds himself in some sort of lab. The green light becomes more intense as does the smoke, which seems to be coming from the floor. Larry notices pairs of rubber boots in a glass cabinet near the entrance to the lab. As Larry exhales smoke comes out of his mouth due to the extreme cold of the strange lab. As he walks in further he notices a door which leads to some sort of viewing room for the lab. He creeps into the viewing room, crouches low and notices two or three lab techs working feverishly around a man in a hospital like bed, with tubes and monitors coming out of him in every possible orifice. Lots of these tubes are connected to another man in an elaborate glass medical type bed. Green ooze comes out one tube and blood from another. Monitors of all types are making noises and wave form monitors are showing various unknown levels. One lab tech seems to be monitoring a series of computers hooked up to the man in the glass enclosure. Larry peeks up trying not to be noticed. He notices the color and life leave the man in the hospital bed as the other man in the glass bed seems to be feeding off this mans life essence. He appears to actually become younger and healthier in front of Larry’s eyes. The donor man starts to look like a mummy sucked of any life. Larry definitely recognizes the man in the glass medical bed and his eyes grow wide in horror and intrigue.

Larry has seen enough he sneaks back, keeping low and out of sight. He notices his shoes stick to the ground as if melting. Larry's picks his feet up with some effort. A vans imprint is left on the floor as Larry scurries off.

CUT TO:

SHOT OF VANS SHOE IMPRINT

CUT TO:

SHOT OF SURVEILLANCE CAMERA ABOVE LARRYS HEAD, CLOSE UP OF IRIS OF CAMERA WHICH SEEMS TO GO IN AND OUT AS IF ALIVE AND A RED LIGHT GOES OFF, INDICATOR THAT ITS RECORDING.

CUT TO:

Larry sneaking out the side door from where he entered. Larry gets to his backpack, leans over the railing and throws up, grabs his stuff and hurries to his car.

FADE OUT.

INT. NIGHT LARRY AND LIZZY'S APARTMENT

Larry stressed and tired enters his apartment and puts his stuff down by the door. Lizzy is waiting for him in lingerie. The apartment is barely lit, a few candles reveal Lizzy standing seductively in the apartment archway. She approaches Larry, he unties one top strap and Lizzy is naked in front of him, he runs his hands down the sides of her body lit in a haunting silhouette.

FADE TO BLACK.

INT. CAMERA TRUCK DAY

Mikey is putting camera gear together, then walks into the loading booth to load the film mags for the day. He doesn't hear Lizzy entering the truck. As he's finishing loading the last mag Lizzy steps into the tight booth with him. She's facing him, as he stands to object she gets extremely close. Her shirt is very tight and revealing. She wraps her arms around Mikey, making him even more uncomfortable.

LIZZY
Mikey I really appreciate what you and Larry have done for me. I know it was hard for you, being Larry's best friend and all.

Lizzy presses her body even closer to Mikey so he can't move, she puts her face up to Mikey's ear.

LIZZY (CONT'D)
I like you Mikey, I always have, I hope this isn't going to be a problem.

Lizzy grabs Mikey by the balls seductively at first then squeezes harder making him uncomfortable.

LIZZY (CONT'D)
I would hate to see anything happen to you, Niko hates when guys hit on the women of his crew inappropriately. They never seem to find jobs ever again. You have such promise wouldn't want that to happen to you.

Lizzy licks then bites Mikeys ear

LIZZY (CONT'D)
Now would we

Mikey clenches his teeth in anger and shakes a little

LIZZY (CONT'D)
I do love working with you, wouldn't want to see any sudden changes, you know what I mean honey boo don't you?

MIKEY
Yeah yeah we're clear

LIZZY
Perfect, see you on set!

Lizzy replies perkily, kisses Mikey on the cheek playfully and walks out of the changing booth. Mikey collapses a little still shaking from this encounter.

CUT TO:

DAY INT. SOUND STAGE

Larry is at his carts getting the cameras ready for the days shoot. Mikey is bringing in cases from the truck. Lizzy is talking to the Niko and the other camera operators in the distance. They seem to be having an animated discussion. The key grip walks up and gives Lizzy a hug. Larry looks up and see's their interaction, it's a very long hug.

Mikey see's it too and shoots Larry a glance. Niko calls the crew together for a quick rundown.

NIKO
Thanks for an amazing day yesterday! I know it's soon, but I just watched the dailies of yesterdays work. Fucking incredible, just wow what can I say. Today is a lot easier, I'm having Jay bump to A cam today while Lizzy and John and our beloved second AD go on a quick second scout just to iron out some stuff. Larry, Mikey take care of Jay, he's no magician like Lizzy here, but hell he's a damn good operator.

Mikey and Larry give each other a look.

CUT TO:

NIGHT INT. SOUND STAGE ARMY HOSPITAL SET

Larry is pulling focus for Jay on a dolly in a hospital room setting. We hear cut. The director is smiling as he approaches Jay and Larry.

DIRECTOR
Great stuff today, solid work guys!

Director shakes Jay and Larrys hands vigorously, then leans over the hospital bed and hugs his star actor.

DIRECTOR (CONT'D)
Amazing as usual Johnny, you literally brought tears to my eyes, better start writing a speech, fucking Sundance here we come!

Larry hands the camera to Mikey and wipes his the sweat off his head with a bandana, shakes Jays hand and walks off with Mikey.

CUT TO:

INT. NIGHT OUTSIDE OF STAGE/ CAMERA TRUCK

As Larry and Mikey walk toward the trucks with the crew, the key grip bumps into Larry rudely as if he doesn't see him. Larry just rolls his eyes and shrugs it off.

MIKEY
Hey bro whats your deal!

The key grip is a big guy, he stops and gives them both a look and laughs then keeps walking.

MIKEY (CONT'D)
What the fuck was that all about? Have you ever worked with that guy before? What an ass!

LARRY
Yeah long time ago, he was alright, maybe he had a bad day, we had a lot of set ups today, who knows. I don't really care, fuck em. Hey but I've been meaning to ask you something. Is stage six one of our stages? I snuck in there yesterday and saw some really weird shit.

MIKEY
Oh yeah like what? I think we shoot on that stage next week I'll check the schedule. Anyway what the hell were you doing poking around Nancy Drew?

Larry raises his eyebrows at Mikey then shoots him a scared concerned look.

LARRY
Yeah I feel like Nancy fucking Drew. I saw some weird science hospital set shit. Some dude was getting the life sucked out of him!

MIKEY
We're shooting a period war piece dummy. I thought you quit smoking weed. It was probably a commercial shoot or something.

LARRY
Yeah but with no cameras and lights! No fucking way, there was some deep routed evil shit going down. I'm not kidding, I really saw some freaking horror shit going on.

MIKEY
Maybe it was pick ups for a horror movie and they were shooting on hidden cams or something.

Larry stops and gives Mikey and annoyed look

LARRY
No way, no lights, secret security guys and all kinds of medical shit, I'm telling you this wasn't a movie or any kind of shoot!

MIKEY
Alright man I believe you, lets go check it out. Stage six is right here.

They turn the corner and come up on stage six. Stage security guards are standing around the stage entrance. Mikey and Larry approach.

LARRY
Hey guys do you know what was shooting here last night?

GUARD 1
Nothing that I know of, just prepping the stage for War Dogs.

LARRY
Are you sure? We work on War Dogs mind if we go check up on the build?

Larry and Mikey show there War Dog badges. The guard shrugs

GUARD 1
It's a closed set, but since you guys work on the movie, I guess it's cool. Just don't tell production we let you in before shooting. Cool?

MIKEY
Cool thanks guys appreciate it.

Larry and Mikey walk onto the stage. They walk in, an enormous bunker set is almost finished. Its huge and looks like it took months to set up. Giant planes and blown up tanks litter the stage. Larry almost falls over in disbelief.

LARRY
I know what I saw! I'm not going crazy, I couldn't have imagined that shit.

MIKEY
Maybe it was a different stage, we did get off super late, are you sure it was stage six? I barely made it home I was so tired.

Larry just looks around as work is going on around them.

CAMERA PANS AROUND LARRY IN A WIDE HIGH 360 DEGREE ARC CREATES A DIZZYING AFFECT

Larry looks at Mikey and holds his hands over his mouth and shakes his head.

MIKEY (CONT'D)
It's all good buddy I believe you, it was probably just another stage. It was late and dark we all make mistakes.

LARRY
Nah man it was stage six I know it, I know it.

Mikey gives Larry a pat on the back and a little embrace, then starts to walk off. Larry follows him walking past a staircase that goes below the set. He doesn't notice the staircase or the locks blocking the entrance.

MIKEY
I'll see you tomorrow Lare. Your not crazy I believe you, get some rest it's been a stressful week to say the least.

CUT TO:

EXT. NIGHT GUARD SHACK

Larry walks up to the guard shack before he goes to his car. He approaches an old guard he's known for years.

LARRY
Hey Franklin, how's it going my man.

Franklin gets out of the guard shack and smiles at Larry walks towards him and gives him a warm handshake and hug.

FRANKLIN
How's my boy! Are you a DP yet or what? What are you working on?
(MORE)

FRANKLIN (CONT'D)
Oh wait let me guess, that giant War Dogs thing, I bet.

LARRY
Yeah you know it, still pulling focus, need to pay the bills you know how it is. I'm going to DP some low budget thing after this shoot, I'll never give up the dream, you know how it goes. Hey tell me something Franklin, did you notice anything weird last night on stage six?

Franklin tenses up a little and gives Larry a weird scared look.

FRANKLIN
Man I have seem some funky shit in my time but there's some weird stuff going down on this lot.

He's about to say more but shuts up and walks back to his booth.

LARRY
Franklin, Franklin like what?

Franklin waves his arm at Larry, shakes his head and sighs as he sits down in his booth.

FRANKLIN
I can't say for sure, but some secretive shit. Men in suits I ain't never seen before. Late at night. They told me not to talk to anyone about it.

LARRY
Ha what who? Who told you not to talk about it? What men?

FRANKLIN
I can't Larry I need this job!

He turns his head and brushes Larry off shaking and getting visibly scared.

LARRY
It's all good, I don't want to get you in trouble, I just need to know if I'm going crazy.

FRANKLIN
Just let it be, don’t poke your nose into these peoples business Larry, just let it go, it’s not worth knowing about.

LARRY
Thanks buddy, I appreciate you being honest with me, say hi to Cleo, if she still wants to be in camera tell her to call me. Love you man have a great night.

FRANKLIN
Thanks Larry, she’s my pride and joy, I’ll have her call you, but promise me you’ll keep your ass out of trouble.

LARRY Promise

Larry starts to walk away a little shaken from his conversation with Franklin. Franklin goes after him and puts his face close to Larrys ear and takes his hand, with his other hand he puts a note into Larrys hoodie pocket then whispers in his ear.

FRANKLIN
Be careful son, they’re everywhere

LARRY
What who is?

FRANKLIN
Drive safe Larry say hi to Lizzy for me.

Franklin ignores Larrys question as if he didn’t hear it and walks back to the guard shack.

CUT TO:

INT. NIGHT LARRYS CAR

Larry drives his car out of the lot, a few other people are leaving too, the black BMW is about four cars back. Larry pulls out of the lot and heads home. His phone rings

LIZZY ON THE PHONE
Hey babe did you leave yet?

LARRY
Yeah just pulled out, what's up?

LIZZY ON THE PHONE
Hey I didn't eat on the scout today, I just ordered some food from Alejos could you pick it up on your way home? I ordered your favorite Diablo pasta thing.

LARRY
Of course, yeah I'm hungry didn't eat the crap they were serving today. How was your day, how was the scout?

Lizzy hesitates

LIZZY ON THE PHONE
It was cool, just a bombed out building at some back lot in the middle of nowhere. How was your day?

LARRY
Huh, that's weird another location so late in the game. Whatever just more days more money. My day was fine a little weird. Tell you about it later. I think I'm just tired, see you in a bit.

LIZZY ON THE PHONE
Thanks for picking up the food, love you see you in a when you get home hon.

CUT TO:

EXT./INT. NIGHT ALEJOS PARKING LOT AND RESTAURANT

Larry pulls up to Alejos gets out the car and walks to the entrance. As he is about to go in he notices the black BMW drive by. He looks at it for a second but thinks nothing of it. As he's walking to the restaurant he puts his hands in his hoodie pocket, notices the note that Franklin put there. He opens it up as he enters Alejos. He reads it as he's walking to the register.

CUT TO:

CLOSE UP SHOT OF THE NOTE

"Larry stay away from Jack Lindsey and his green family and especially stage six. His men are everywhere you look."

Larry stands there and ponders this odd cryptic note.

CASHIER
Hey Larry picking up for Lizzy?

Larry is still reeling from the letter

LARRY
Uhm yeah pick up, sorry I'm out of it, long day!

CASHIER
No problem Larry, here you go, say hi to Lizzy for me.

Larry still stunned looks up the cashier pays the bill and smiles grabs the food.

LARRY
Yeah, yeah, I will thanks.

CUT TO:

NIGHT EXT. STREET LARRY DRIVNG HOME

A heavy fog starts to roll in as Larry exits the restaurant. The streetlights flood the streets with an eery green light, from a flickering neon sign. Larry gets in his car and heads home. As he's driving he notices a car from the oncoming lane heading straight towards him. A black BMW comes barreling at him. Larry veers to his right at the last minute and jumps the curb, he slams on his breaks barely missing a telephone pole. Larry comes to a stop, he buries his head in his hands, shaken up.

LARRY
Holy fucking shit! What the hell was that all about.

Larry gets out of his car to see if the other car has stopped. He just notices the tail lights of the BMW fade into the fog.

CUT TO:

SHOT OF BMW TAIL LIGHTS DISAPPEARING INTO THE FOG.

FADE TO BLACK.

NIGHT INT. LARRY AND LIZY'S APARTMENT

Larry walks into the apartment, puts his keys and the food down on the dining room table. He appears mentally and physically stressed, but Lizzy pays no attention to him, grabs her food and takes it to the couch where she devours her food and drinks a beer in front of the tv. Larry stares at her while she's eating her pasta in her underwear and an old college sweatshirt. Her attention is glued to the screen.

LARRY
Uh Lizzy can we talk for a minute. I've got something I have to tell you, there's some weird shit going on and I think I'm loosing it.

Lizzy looks up a little totally uninterested, stuffs more food into her mouth.

LIZZY
What babe I'm watching the Bachelor, it's just getting good, it's almost over.

Lizzy keeps stuffing pasta into her mouth, the apartment is kind of dark she is enveloped by the heavy green glow of the television.

LARRY
Yeah all good, I was just almost killed and I think I've stumbled onto some crazy body swapping cult, the head of the studio is a blood sucking monster, nothing that couldn't wait, I'll be fine.
(MORE)

LARRY (CONT'D)
I’m gonna go smoke some weed on the balcony and trip out by myself, enjoy your food and your mind numbing show.

Lizzy puts up a hand, waves, slurping up a strand of pasta.

LIZZY
That’s great babe, talk to you in a bit.

Larry grabs a beer, opens the sliding glass door to the balcony takes a seat. He finds a half smoked joint in the ashtray and lights it up while sitting down transfixed by the traffic going past his balcony. As he takes a big drag he see’s a black BMW drive past at a high speed slows down and then stops at the corner for a few minutes. He shakes his head and laughs a little taking another puff and big gulp of beer at the same time. Larry finishes his beer and the joint and walks back inside. Lizzy is asleep on the couch and her show is over, the news is on.

CUT TO:

INSERT SHOT OF THE TELEVISION

The story is about disappearing homeless people in Hollywood. We see a homeless man being interviewed raving about some of his missing buddies.

HOMELESS MAN
Hey why is nothing being done? Where’s the hell are my friends? I get it we’re homeless, but we are people, with rights! What is going on here?

Larry covers Lizzy with a blanket kisses her head and heads to the bedroom.

FADE OUT.

INT. NIGHT STAGE 6

Larry is putting gear away with camera crew for the night.

LARRY
Hey going to the production office to drop off some film, be back in a minute.

MIKEY
Okay Larry see you in a few.

Larry see's Lizzy talking to the key grip, they are having an animated discussion. He thinks it's odd but shrugs it off and takes a shortcut through set to the production office. As Larry is walking we hear shouts.

GRIP
Hey look out below, line out!

Larry looks up at the perms, he see's a bar of lights come flying straight at him, Larry jumps out of the way the lights barely missing him. They come crashing down destroying a set wall next to Larry. Part of the set wall comes crashing down lands on Larry burying him. The crew comes racing in pushing back the lights, lifting all the debris off of Larry.

CREW MEMBER
Larry, Larry can you here me? Are you okay? Holy shit I need some help here!

More people come rushing in to help get Larry free. A few guys pick up the wall that landed on Larry and throw it to the side. Larry is unconscious, covered by glass, wood and dust. The set medic comes running in. The medic is able to revive Larry and has him follow his finger. Larry is bleeding from his head and scratched up, but awake, barely.

SET MEDIC
We need to get him to a hospital immediately! John call the paramedics now!

CUT TO:

CLOSE UP OF LARRY'S FACE

Larry starts to loose consciousness, his eyes roll back into his head as he collapses.

HIGH ANGLE SHOT OF LARRY ON A GURNEY MOVING THROUGH THE STAGE THAT JUST KEEPS GETTING HIGHER AND HIGHER. CAMERA GETS SO HIGH LARRY BECOMES A DOT ON THE SET.

FADE TO BLACK.

INT. NIGHT HOSPITAL ROOM

Niko, Lizzy, Mikey, John 1st AD stand around Larry's hospital bed. Larry is sipping juice through a red and white straw and looks like a little kid. He is doped up on pain pills and visibly and mentally very out of it.

NIKO
Holy shit kid you gave us quite the scare! How's my main man? Feeling better, you were out for quite some time!

LARRY
Whoa what how long was I out? I feels great! Lizzzy you, you look amazing!

Larry looks at Lizzy in his eyes she is bathed in a glow of green light, he is extremely out of it.

LIZZY
Thank god your ok, you had us all worried, the doctor said you were really lucky, said you have a really thick skull.

Everyone laughs a little except Mikey

MIKEY
It's good to see you awake, man that lighting bar came out of nowhere, still don't get how its just slipped like that, but just glad it didn't take out my best homie!

Mikey gives Larry a hug and holds back a tear.

JOHN 1ST AD
Doctor said you should be fine, minor concussion, they just want to do an overnight evaluation and a few more tests. You should be released tomorrow. It's Friday so you'll have the weekend to relax. There's just this matter of liability, it was a fluke accident but our lawyers just need you to sign this form, releasing us from any form of future legal action.

MIKEY
Jesus Christ this couldn’t have waited? This guy almost got killed!

JOHN
Yeah, yeah I know it sucks but we can’t resume production until this is resolved, not my decision production just is covering their asses.

Mikey rolls his eyes and Lizzy looks a little pissed

NIKO
Sorry bud, but I need you on my team, it was a freak accident, you know this shit happens sometimes. Besides we’re going to make history with this movie and I want you to be there when it happens! You and Lizzy are an amazing irreplaceable team! Sign this shit and I’ll take you two on one hell of a ride!

They all look at him with puppy dog eyes except Mikey who looks agitated, but eventually shrugs.

LARRY
Ah man, it’s cool Niko, I want to see this movie in the can just as much as you!

Larry grabs the papers from John as John hands him a pen. Larry drugged up smiles and signs

NIKO
Love you man, see you on set Monday

Niko pats Larry on the head then kisses his head

JOHN
Thanks Larry you made the right decision, feel better see you on set

Mikey pats Larry on the back and gives him a look, everyone leaves, pats and hugs Larry except Lizzy

LIZZY
Babe you did the right thing, this movie is going to put me on the map, and if it wasn’t for you..

Lizzy can't finish her next sentence, she adeptly fakes concern and even manages a little tear. She hugs Larry and collapses on him

FADE OUT.

INT. MORNING LIZZY AND LARRY'S APARTMENT

Lizzy is looking at her laptop and making tea for Larry with a recipe from a micro dosing doctor she met on set. The recipe calls for a teaspoon of mushroom dust to 12 ounces and water combined with your favorite tea. Lizzy gets out a lemon zinger tea and measures a teaspoon of mushroom dust. She pauses and crumbles in 4 mushroom heads instead of 1 teaspoon of mushroom dust. It's Saturday their day off so Larry stumbles into the kitchen in his boxers and a teeshirt.

LIZZY
Good morning babe. I made you some of your favorite tea and I bought some blueberry scones the ones you love. I'm going out to run some errands with Alex. Relax watch some basketball or a cool movie, I'll be back before dinner, if not just order a pizza.

Lizzy kisses Larry and gives him a quick hug.

LARRY
Thanks babe, that's a good idea, I think the Lakers are playing, I'm still a little woozy from all the meds they got me on.

LIZZY
Oh cool yeah babe just relax today, Doctor said you should be good by Monday to go back to work. Call me if you need anything. Don't forget don't smoke any weed, Doctor said it can mess up your meds! Love ya!

Lizzy grabs her bag off the couch and blows Larry a kiss and she's out the door. Larry takes a scone and his tea and sits down on the couch, then puts on the game. Larry devours his scone and drinks his tea fairly quickly, reclines on the couch, but gets up fore more tea and scones then heads to his balcony. Larry sits down watches the people go by, picks up his bong and a little jar of weed. He loads a big rip and smokes it, barely able to hold it in.

CLOSE UP OF LARRY'S HEAD AS HIS EARS START TO RING FROM THE BONG LOAD. ALL WE HEAR IS A BUZZING SOUND AS ALL OTHER NOISE FADES. CAMERA ZOOMS IN ON HIS EYES AND WE SEE A REFLECTION OF A BLACK BMW.

Larry leans back in his chair buzzed, he feels light headed and rubs his eyes.

LARRY
Damn thats some strong shit!

A heavy fog starts to roll in as Larry takes another hit. As he's blowing out a giant cloud of smoke he notices man in a suit staring at him from a distance on the corner. Larry looks again and squints the man is gone. Larry gets up, goes inside and plops down on the couch. As Larry is watching the game he falls asleep, and slips into a deep dream.

DREAM SEQUENCE

Larry is sitting in front of large desk. Man sitting at the desk is the studio head. His features are grotesquely exaggerated. He's wearing glasses tinted in silver. He is getting bigger and bigger. His desk soon towers over Larry. A white beam of light engulfs the studio head as Larry is dwarfed by the darkness. The studio head stands points a boney finger at Larry as he's morphing into a demon like creature. As he's pointing his arm grows longer and longer. He grins at Larry exposing a wicked yellow smile.

Larry wakes up covered in sweat, the game is over and Dr.Strangelove is playing on the television. Larry looks at his watch. As he's looking at his watch it looks like its pulsating. Larry lies back, the couch engulfs him. The cushions envelop him and he finds himself falling into a dark abyss.

Larry wakes for a second time, the television is still on but now the news is on.

CUT TO:

SHOT OF TELEVISION

The news caster is talking about more homeless men disappearing in Silver Lake and Hollywood area.

Larry hesitantly looks at his watch again, making sure he's not dreaming. It's 7 pm Larry has been sleeping for quite some time. He walks over to the fridge extremely thirsty. He drinks a green gatorade in one gulp, bathed in green light from the fridge. He surveys the fridge for something to eat.

Nothing looks appealing. Larry puts on some sweats and hoodie and puts his shoes on. Grabs his wallet, keys and phone and heads out the door.

EXT. EVENING STREET IN SILVER LAKE

Larry heads down his street, there's a Mexican take out place a few blocks away. As Larry gets closer to the restaurant he notices the sidewalk start to warp and the buildings around him appear to be breathing. Larry rubs his eyes but keeps walking. A group of young women walk past him laughing. As Larry passes them he notices their heads are getting bigger and bigger. As Larry pauses and stares at them they stare back with their giant ballon like heads. They laugh and one of the giant heads winks at Larry. Larry finds himself in front of the Mexican food take out. He manages to order a burrito and a drink and heads back to his place.

(Elaborate his trip)

CUT TO:

INT NIGHT LARRYS APARTMENT

Larry walks over to his balcony check his weed container its empty. Larry sighs, walk back and paces a bit in the living room, he checks his phone, no messages. He sends a message to his friend and weed dealer.

Insert shot of phone: Hey Tye I'm coving over.

CUT TO:

INT NIGHT TYE'S APARTMENT

Larry walks up a second story to Tye's apartment, the hallway light is flickering and the hallway is eery. Larry knocks on the door. Tye lets him in. The apartment is inviting and warm, colorful artwork and guitars litter the walls. A comfortable modern couch sits on a plush rug. Tye has good taste. Tye is a forty something dred, very handsome and has a warm smile. Larry goes up to Tye and gives him a hug.

TYE
Good to see you to buddy!

Tye smiles and gives Larry a big hug back

TYE (CONT'D)
You okay? Your pupils look dilated as hell, what the hell are you on?

LARRY
ReallY? Just smoking the weed you gave me, but you're right I feel like I'm tripping, I've been seeing some crazy shit, I can't explain. At work at home, in the streets, I think I might be loosing it for real bro!

Larry is sweating and looks a little crazed.

TYE
Relax brother come chill on the kush couch, tell Tye whats going on in that head of yours.

Tye guides Larry to the couch, Larry reclines and closes his eyes and spreads his arms, sinks back into the couch. Larry relaxes

LARRY
Man I fucking love this couch! It's like it knows what I need. No wonder you gave up the biz, you found this miracle of life.

Tye laughs, takes a seat across from Larry, but gives him a concerned look. Tye is bathed in warm white light from an unknown source. The light starts to encompass Larry as Tye leans in closer to Larry. Tye takes a hit from a beautiful glass blown pipe, blows out a huge hit, the smoke swirls around them in the light shafts, creating waves and beautiful curling transforming patterns. He hands Larry the pipe, lights it for him. Larry takes a big hit, smiles and relaxes into the couch. Tye looks into Larry's eyes.

TYE (CONT'D)
So when did you take the shrooms? I can see your purple aura. You were obviously not ready for their gifts.

LARRY
What, shrooms? I've just been smoking weed!

TYE
No my friend you have been dosed, quite heavily. If your mind is not ready to accept Psilocybe cubensis, it can delve into the dark aspects of your psyche. Wait here relax for a few, I'm going to make you some ginger tea, it will help you relax.

LARRY
Yeah Lizzy made me tea this morning put me to sleep!

Tye stops in his tracks and gives Larry a quizzical look. He goes to the kitchen and starts a kettle. Larry relaxes and closes his eyes while Tye is gone. Tye comes back with the ginger tea and hands it to Larry.

TYE
This should help, ginger heals all.

Larry takes a sip of the tea then sets it down on the natural wood table in front of him. Tye sits down and scratches his chin and beard and ponders Larry.

TYE (CONT'D)
Larry many forces are pulling you in different directions, some are good, but it looks like many dark entities hover over you like pouncing dragons. Be wary of people with green auras and bad intentions. You must create your own destiny, trust your heart and your higher power, whatever that might be, since I know you don't believe in god.

LARRY
Wait what? Dark who? Man I definitely feel like someone or something is fucking with me. I've been having the craziest dreams, I can't tell if I'm awake or asleep half the time. I also feel like someone or something is following me, I've never felt so out of my freak'n mind.

Larry takes another hit of the pipe and takes a sip of his tea.

LARRY (CONT'D)
This is amazing tea! What it's called?

TYE
My grandmother used to give it to me and my sister if we were sick or troubled, it's a her secret mix. But why do think someone is following you?
(MORE)

TYE (CONT'D)
My grandfather often talked about alternate timelines and sometimes we crossed in between them without even knowing. He would talk of the green men and the demons that followed them.

LARRY
You are the second person to tell me about these green men what the hell are you talking about? You're starting to freak me out a little, how could you possibly know that I've had dealings with them?

Tye laughs a little then takes another hit, blows out a huge cloud.

TYE
It's not that they are actually green, but their auras are green, which can be seen if you know what and how to look for them. Relax your mind, focus only on keeping your mind clear. Close your eyes and concentrate until you see the glow. It will start slow them gradually grows, casting a silhouette around that person or being. This also works on normal people, you can teach yourself to see the auras of people. They can be beautiful, rainbow, purple, blue or yellow, the primary colors of the universe. But green my friend is something to be leery of, it is an aura of those from a different realm or consciousness and sometimes of a varying or alternative timeline.

LARRY
Okay that's a bit much to take in right now. I'm just worried I'm going insane and can't differentiate between reality and whatever is going on right now, and I'm out of fucking weed!

TYE
You are not going insane my friend, just becoming aware and in tune with the universe.
(MORE)

TYE (CONT'D)
You are gifted in more ways than one, use that gift to fight and become stronger. Don’t let the external forces and voices sway you.

LARRY
Mmmm yeah no that’s wild to hear you say that, but for some reason makes sense. I love you man, I’m starting to feel better, more relaxed. I have so much external noise going on, like you said. I just needed a place where my mind can stop spinning and regurgitating and constantly analyzing.

Tye smiles and puts a bag of weed in Larry’s flannel pocket, with a few bags of tea.

TYE
Smoke only this weed nobody else’s and drink this tea when you need to calm your mind down. Trust only the ones that truly love you. I will always be here for you, for guidance and to talk, you are my brother. I’ll always make time for you Larry.

Larry relaxed smiles, gets up and heads to the door.

FADE OUT.

EXT. MORNING GUARD SHACK AT STUDIO

Larry drives up to the guard shack and shows the guard his pass.

SHACK GUARD
Morning sir

LARRY
Hey good morning, hey where’s Franklin this morning?

The guard looks at Larry perplexed and a little worried.

SHACK GUARD
Man sorry to tell you, but Franklins daughter found him passed out at home over the weekend, he's in the hospital in the ICU.

LARRY
What oh my god, damn really?

Someone behind Larry starts honking, Larry annoyed moves up a little pulls into the lot

SHACK GUARD
Sorry man, Franklin is like a legend here!

Larry is dazed and thrown off

LARRY
Yeah thanks.

As Larry is driving away from the booth he looks into his rear view window. He notices a black BMW stop at the booth to show their credentials. The driver of the BMW is a giant fang toothed creature with a giant hairy furred monster head. The monster shows the guard his ID. Larry freaks out and rear ends the car ahead of him.

CUT TO:

DAY EXT. LOT PARKING LOT

Larry gets out of his car as the black BMW drives past him. The driver is a man in a dark suit with silver sunglasses, who slowly drives past him. As he passes Larry he grins at Larry with a crooked smile. Meanwhile the guy who's car he hit is storming towards him.

DRIVER
What the hell didn't you see me!

Larry is still watching the BMW drive by stunned. Frozen in place.

DRIVER (CONT'D)
Hey buddy are you okay?

Larry snaps out of it and looks at the guy he just hit.

LARRY
Yeah yeah yeah sorry oh my god, so sorry sir I was looking down, wasn't paying attention, totally my fault. I'll pay for any damages, so sorry.

Larry and the driver look at the damages which are very minimal.

DRIVER
All good it's just a scratch, my cars a piece of shit anyway, just be careful. You okay man? You look like shit sorry to say, since I just met you. Be careful alright bud?

LARRY
I'm good, you okay? I'm really sorry I thought, I uh thought I just saw a monster.

DRIVER
What, ha yeah I see them all the time. You're freaking me out a little, I know, long hours I get it! They he run us ragged! I just did a 14 hour day, I see shit all the time. Get some rest buddy if you can.

Driver gets back in his car as does Larry. They both pull off and park. Larry parks and puts his head into his steering wheel over his arms and Laughs and cries at the same time.

CUT TO:

INT. EVENING STAGE 6

Bombed out tanks and crashed planes litter the set. Crew is scurrying around, they are lighting the next scene. The camera crew are getting ready while the dolly grip lays track for a long tracking shot.

DOLLY GRIP (JOKER)
Okay Larry ready for camera.

LARRY
Right on thanks Joker

Larry puts the camera on the dolly with the help of Joker and Mikey.

Lizzy is pacing nervously, but then takes a seat on the dolly. Niko comes walking in with his flowing white outfit.

NIKO
Okay folks on this one we track fast as the enemy comes storming in. Joker keep up a fast even pace, Lizzy get the number one and then pan to the enemy rushing in then whip to the plane which comes crashing in at the end. Should be easier than that shit you pulled off on the first day. Larry keep focus on the number one then rack to the enemy then stay focused on the plane in the background. Long take, three main elements, nail this shit and we can go home early tonight. I want to see my fucking wife tonight before she falls asleep, I want to see my fucking dog, I miss that little fucker! Alright lets do it! Go to one.

The first AD yells roll, and the dolly takes off. Lizzy hits her first mark then the second but misses on the third.

NIKO (CONT'D)
Nice but I think we can be smoother on the third mark. Yeah? Alright lets go again.

FIRST AD
Alright camera ready? Martinis up!

LIZZY
Ready

SOUND
Sound speeds

FIRST AD
Action!

Lizzy makes the first mark and the second but just misses the third. This goes on for 6 or 7 more takes. Niko comes out of his tent pacing and frustrated.

NIKO
Alright Lizzy that was close, lets hit this one and we can go home and start this much needed weekend! Show me that magic! Cmon. Lets do this.

The camera rolls and Lizzy finally hits the third mark, Larry pulls focus with precise precision.

NIKO (CONT'D)
Yo Larry check that shit.

LARRY
Gates good!

FIRST AD
Alright thats a wrap for today

The crew starts wrapping for the day, Lizzy slumps over the camera as the dolly grip starts tearing apart the dolly track around her. Larry is working on the camera when Niko approaches him.

CUT TO:

EXT. DAY FLASHBACK DISNEY RANCH 5 YEARS AGO

Lizzy is a second camera assistant for Larry, she's carrying lens cases and monitors to a tent next to a car rig they are setting up for a new scene. She is fumbling and getting frustrated.

EMILY
What the hell Lizzy! I told you only to bring the primes and the follow focus

Emily is the first camera assistant and is getting clearly annoyed at Lizzy's mistakes

LIZZY
Oh shit sorry Em it won't happen again, what else should I grab?

EMILY
Ok yeah, could you go to the truck and get me all the hundred foot mags please.

LIZZY
You got it!

Lizzy runs off to the truck as Emily walks up to Larry

EMILY
Hey Lare, I get it she's blonde and cute, but it's been three weeks and she's just not getting it!
(MORE)

EMILY (CONT'D)
There’s only two of us and no loader, can I please bring Mikey in?

LARRY
I remember your first job, nervous as all hell, almost got us all fired for loading the mags wrong! Remember that shit? But yeah I get it, she’s messing up, but she has gotten better and the town is busy, I can’t get our usual crew because this rate sucks. I’ll talk to production get Mikey in here, take some of the load off you two.

EMILY
Cool, I get it, thanks Larry. Mikey would be awesome to have. But Lare please, please don’t ask her out that would really mess with her head! I see the way she looks at you, I personally see it as an act, she just wants to climb the ladder, and is willing to do anything to get to the top of the food chain. She’s fucking ruthless, take it from me, I’ve seen her type before. Definitely think she’s just using you!

LARRY
Well as long as she gets the job done, we’ve all been there. I’m used to being used, trust me, we should be on a bigger show, politics as usual.

Larry continues to rig the camera on the car

END FLASHBACK

CUT TO:

INT. STAGE 6 CONT.

NIKO
Hey Larry good job today

Niko leans in close for only Larry to hear.

NIKO (CONT'D)
Hey whats going on with Lizzy? She hasn't shown me any magic since that first day. You guys okay? She seems stressed. I need her to step it up, been getting shit from the big guy. I love Lizzy but if we have to move her to B and put Jay on A I wan't you to first for him. You're to fucking good to be on B camera. Maybe the best I've ever worked with.

LARRY
She's just a little stressed from the pressure, she'll be fine Niko. I'll talk to her.

NIKO
Yeah good. Your a good guy Larry. Hey man I just watched that movie you shot last year. The movie stunk, but it looked incredible some amazing work. We need to talk, you're an amazing first but you got talent, I mean real talent as a D.P. I hear things, get me? I'm serious Larry, what the fuck are you doing with your life? What are your true intentions, what drives you? You see light, movement and film like a true artist! Film is your canvas, you live and breath this shit! Why are you here?

LARRY Film!

NIKO
Then prove it too me! I'm going to make a few calls. I just turned down a tier two movie not enough cash there for me, but you could make a name for yourself on this one, good director good talent is involved. I don't do this for just anyone. What do you think? Can you be the artist I think you can be? Or are you going to hide yourself behind the camera, or be the tool of artistry that I know is in you!

LARRY
The camera is just an extension of my mind, I eat and sleep and shit film, give me the chance and I'll shit all over the place!

NIKO
Exactly Larry! Shit all over this business! Paint the negative with those eyes!

Niko glares at Larry then smiles a bit like a lunatic

NIKO (CONT'D)

Anyway talk to Lizzy do whatever you got to do to get her up to speed.

LARRY
Yeah Niko thanks. I appreciate the chance, won't let you down. And I'll talk to Lizzy, have a good night

NIKO
Yeah you too Lare. I'm too old and tired to go to Johnies party tonight, but you and Lizzy should go, blow off some steam, relax get her mind off things, maybe yours too from the looks of things.

LARRY
Yeah maybe, see you Monday Niko

Niko walks off and glimpses back at Larry before he disappears.

FADE TO BLACK.

NIGHT INT. PARTY AT JOHNIES HOUSE IN THE HOLLYWOOD HILLS

Larry and Lizzy pull up to Johnies house, it's a modern house nestled in the hills. Lizzy is dressed in a see through short silver dress, her blonde hair glows in the light. People from the crew and friends greet them as they walk into the party. Three beautiful women approach Lizzy and whisk her away. Larry grabs a beer from a table full of drinks and heads to the pool area.

PARTY GOER
You look amazing Lizzy!

Larry spots Mikey and his girlfriend and her friends smoking a joint by the pool. They all smile at him, give him hugs and kisses as he takes the joint from Mikey and takes a big drag and blows out a huge cloud. One of Mikeys friends Mia smiles at Larry seductively. She is a natural beauty with red blonde hair. She is dressed in a white flowing short dress.

MIKEY
Hey Larry so glad you came man! You never come to these things, this is amazing! Larry this is Mia, we went to film school together, she's a gaffer! Bad ass one if I say so myself. Loves Kurosawa! Her favorite movie is Lone wolf and Cub, she's into all the same shit your into!

Mia shakes Larry's hand leans up to him and kisses his cheek. She is clearly attracted to Larry but he barely notices.

MIA
I think there's a little more to me than two lines Mikey! Anyway, I've heard so much about you, Mikey loves you! I saw your work at Slamdance, movie kinda blew but looked amazing! Such unique bad ass camera work, the beach scene was freak'n mind blowing, fucking stunning buddy. Would love to gaff a project or something for you one day.

Larry smiles takes another rip off the joint and then hands it to Mia.

LARRY
Thanks for the kind words, I think? But your right, looked great but the movie blew, but at least the director allowed me to be creative. I'm still a work in progress. I'm shooting a low budget after War Dogs, send me some of your stuff, always looking for a new gaffer.

MIKEY
Her shit is badass, old school hard light, you would dig it. If you don't use her on your next gig you might not get a second chance, her ass is on fire blowing the fuck up!
(MORE)

MIKEY (CONT'D)
And who the fuck are you kidding! Larry your the next Kubrick! Just a little naive in this shit storm of politics and crappy remakes. There’s no more originality anymore, and the movies and scripts that do show a glimmer of hope are shot down by fools like you know who.

Mikey winks and makes a motion to look behind him, where one of the producers for War Dogs is standing.

MIA
Mikey your sweet, my ass is fire!

Mia turns around and shows everyone her ass, everyone laughs

MIA (CONT’D)
But yeah I just got off a horror action samurai movie, I only took it because well, samurais and crazy off the wall zombie motha fuckers, all kinds of nutty characters! Doesn’t get any better! I’m trying to reinvent how lighting especially color creates emotions; love, tension, fear, you know all the real shit we go through, not just some candy ass bullshit were spoon fed as kids.

Larry looks at Mia with a new found appreciation, as a white light overpowers all other light, focusses in and ultimately only surrounds her, but this is only seen by Larry. She keeps talking but her voice fades out. He only hears the music and is captivated by Mia as if in a trance.

As Mikey is talking the band starts up, crazy hypnotic psychedelic music blasts from inside the house, everyone in the back rushes in to see the band. Mia grabs Mikey and Larry’s hands and her and the other three girls usher them into the party. Larry sees Lizzy she is dancing with the key grip. Lights go dim and strobe lights pop up with hints of color, mainly green covers the room. Another joint is passed to Larry, it smells a bit weird to him, but he takes a big hit anyway. Mia passes him a drink and dances around him. As Mia is draped around Larry he starts to trip hard. The joint was laced with DMT. Colors turn, vivid faces distort as he melts into the music. Larry looks around the room and sees the key grip dancing with Lizzy. He has his hands under her dress and is grinding sexually. Larry tries to get to them but is blocked by half naked dancers.

He catches a glimpse again of Lizzy, now she is dancing with a demon whose tail is going up her legs. Strobe lights and people swirl around him. Larry finds himself collapsing. Mia and Mikey rush to his side and pull him up and out of the crowded party. They manage to get him to a lounge chair by the pool. They stand over Larry.

LARRY POV SHOT MIKEY'S HEAD LOOKS ENORMOUS, MIA AND HER FRIENDS FORM A SILHOUETTE OVER LARRY IT STARTS TO LOOK LIKE A KALEIDOSCOPE SPINNING AROUND HIS HEAD.

Larry sits up still reeling from the visual inside.

MIA (CONT'D)
OMG are you okay?

LARRY
What the hell was in that joint? I'm kinda tripping balls right now or at least I was.

MIKEY
Yeah it did smell funky as shit! My guess would be DMT.

LARRY
What the fuck is DMT?

MIKEY
It's a hallucinogen kind of like acid or shrooms only lasts for a few minutes. Can be a heavy trip if your not ready for it.

MIA
Yeah I did see some vivid lights, but definitely not tripping as hard as you hon.

Larry sits up and runs his hand through his hair, he sits back and someone hands him a glass of water. He appears to be somewhat better but still is sweating and out of sorts.

MIKEY
Well you seem better, me and the girls are going back in to dance, its not everyday Jane's Addiction plays a house party.

Larry nods and they head back in, Mia stays sitting with Larry as the music intensifies. She leaves for a minute and comes back with a tall glass of something.

Larry inhales the drink and looks wildly at Mia, she is bathed in a halo of white light again, but looks more angelic this time. She smiles at Larry brushes his hair back and looks into his eyes. Larry relaxes smiles back at Mia.

MIA
Hey there you are, you looked like you stared death in his eyes and told him to fuck off!

LARRY
I know I just met you but for some reason I feel so comfortable around you as though we have met before..

MIA
As if we were married or together for a very long time, or perhaps we were lovers from another life, connected by some incredible force...never heard that line before.

Mia moves closer to Larry sits on the chair with him, puts her face closer to his, studies his eyes following his movements, she backs off and starts dancing to the music flowing seductively. Mia gets closer and slides up Larry arches her back and she is blasted by white lights from the house.

SHOT OF MIA'S SILHOUETTE BLENDING AND CHANGING COLORS BEHIND THEM.

CUT TO:

SHOT OF LARRY TRYING TO KISS MIA

Mia shakes her finger no smiles

MIA (CONT'D)
No no it's not going to be that easy.

Mia grabs Larry from his shirt collar and leads him away past the pool into a hallway and then another. She opens a glass door which leads to a giant couch viewing room. They stumble and fall into a giant couch laughing. Mia pulls something from under her but and makes a face. It's a remote control. She pushes power and the ceiling lights up projecting space and infinite galaxies. Mia looks up in amazement smiles then falls back down on the couch landing on Larry.

Mia lights a joint that she pulls out of her purse. They look at each other and lock gazes. Larry and Mia attack each other animalisticaly. The rooms spins in time with the music as the camera spins around the couple as their kissing becomes more intense.

CUT TO:

Mia gently pushes Larry of her and they lie back taking a break from their kissing session.

LARRY
Damn I've never done that before.

MIA
What kissed a goddess?

LARRY
No cheated on my girlfriend.

MIA

Well I know we just met but from what I've heard and just saw, your so called girlfriend has been messing around for a while. And kissing isn't quite cheating, is it? And you my friend are an amazing guy, I don't do this with just anybody, even though it was pretty fucking spontaneous and a bit crazy. But it's like you said our paths were meant to cross.

LARRY
I know she's been cheating, I'm just to pussy to confront her; plus she really is a beautiful monster. I just can't say no to her, and I suppose I do love her.

MIA
Love hmmm maybe, monster yes it's a bit of something else mixed in. You hate being alone, I get it, it sucks, but she's draining you and you just don't see it. I see a light in you but Lizzy ahh something different. She has an ominous dark green aura.

Larry sits up and looks at Mia intently, something she said really hits a nerve.

LARRY
Why the fuck does everyone keep telling me about this green aura shit! That's so weird it's exactly what my best friend slash weed dealer said!

MIA
Well your weed dealer is a fucking truth sayer shaman!

LARRY
Wait what? How did you know he is a shaman? Well self proclaimed shaman

Mia smiles and relights the joint white light surrounds her as the smoke swirls around them both. Larry looks bewildered.

MIA
Takes one to know one!

They both recline on the giant couch and look at each other intensely.

MIA (CONT'D)
Have you ever seen Lawrence of Arabia? One of my favorite movies of all time by the way.

LARRY
Of course, my mom took me to see it when I was nine. Didn't really get it then, but as I rewatched it as adult I grew to Love it.

MIA
Well to me you are a lot like Lawrence. All these incredible people surround you, and all these amazing events unfold around you, yet you remain oblivious to the meaning and importance of the people which are guiding you. You don't realize or understand the true capacity of your talents. Talents which can move a generation, or elevate you beyond any expectations you might have. Your belief in yourself is being shut away and for some reason. You deny your greatness! You are Larry of Los Angeles, held back by this force which comes solely from you!

LARRY
Well then how do I change it? Fulfill my destiny? Ha sounds like a line from Conan the Barbarian.

MIA
I think deep down you know the answer to that. Fuck Larry be a man! Be the man, be the ball Larry, me I'm just a screw up.

They both start laughing, Mia lights another joint she finds in Larry's shirt pocket and takes a big hit.

MIA (CONT'D)
Damn where did you get this? I need your dealers number!

Larry's phone buzz's it's a text from Lizzy.

SHOT OF LARRYS PHONE
Larry I'm going to House of Pies with the girls, see you when you get home. Love you Lizzy

Larry looks at his phone then at Mia.

LARRY
Hey let's get out of here, Lizzy took off with her friends, It's a full moon lets go smoke another joint at the beach or something, I don't want to go home just yet. I smoke a lot of weed if you haven't noticed.

Mia smiles

MIA
Yeah it's a crutch you're hiding behind, as long as it doesn't consume you, let it open your mind not close it. Ok yeah lets go find Mikey and my ride let them know we're taking off.

CUT TO:

Larry and Mia getting into Larry's car and start driving down Topanga canyon.

INT NIGHT LARRY'S CAR

LARRY
I've had one hell of a week, saw some blood sucking executives, monster like creatures, and swear I'm being followed by fucking Skyland agents! Now my girlfriend is poisoning me, probably cheating and I think I'm loosing my mind! Sorry to drop all my...

MIA
Whoa whoa what? Your girlfriend is doing what now? I get the exec thing they are blood suckers!

LARRY
No they are literally sucking the life out of people!

MIA
Yes I agree the movies they are releasing do suck the life out of people, turning them into brainless following zombies!

LARRY
No, no no you don't get it, they're into some crazy shit!

MIA
Okay Larry start at the beginning tell me what's really going on.

LARRY
Okay cool, you're going to think I'm nuts but here it goes. It started with the first day of primary shooting of War dogs.

Larry starts his story from the begging as the camera pulls out of the car.

SHOT OF CAMERA CIRCLING THE CAR AS IT SPEEDS DOWN THE CANYON, EVENTUALLY LANDING ON THE WINDSHIELD AND THEN FOCUSES ON MIA.

Mia looks wide eyed and in awe of Larry not sure what to say looks forward at the road composes herself and then turns to Larry.

MIA
So if what you say is true lets go get some hard evidence against these bastards!

Mia takes out a small camera from her purse and shows it to Larry.

MIA (CONT'D)
Lets go get some proof.

LARRY
Mia we literally just met like four or five hours ago! I can't ask you to risk your life for me!

MIA
What it sounds like is the damn head of the studio you and I work for is a life sucking a hole! Have you been reading or watching the news lately? It might be just a coincidence, but haven't you heard of all the missing people lately, especially the homeless ones who we mostly don't keep track of, or really kinda don't care about! Well not every homeless man or woman is a drug addict, insane or deserves to be homeless. There's no black and white answers there, what about the ones that fall into that grey area. Lets go fucking uncover that grey area.

Larry stares at Mia in awe, grins thens flips a u-turn and puts his foot on the gas. They pull up to the studio gate and Larry shows the guard his pass.

CUT TO:

GUARD SHACK NIGHT

GATE GUARD
Hey Larry whats up, I'm not supposed to let anyone in tonight, got strict orders.

LARRY
Hey I get it, but I'm really in a bind.

Larry leans out his car window

LARRY (CONT'D)
I really fucked up I forgot to drop off a reel of film to the lab, it's like super important.

Larry whispers behind his hand.

LARRY (CONT'D)
I could get fired, I really blew it, I'm such an idiot, if I could just get in for five minutes I swear I'll be quick just need to drop a reel into JB's box for early processing, please, please ,please. I swear I'll be quick. I have something to make it worth your while.

Larry pulls out a bud, palms it slyly and puts in the guards hand closing his fist with his.

GATE GUARD
Is this from you know who? He won't answer my calls, the bastard.

Larry smiles and nods his head

GATE GUARD (CONT'D)
Alright be quick, but she has to stay in the car.

Guard smiles at Mia and gives a guys alright to Larry

LARRY
Oh you know this, love you man!

The gate opens and Larry drives in. Jimi Hendrix song If Six Was Nine is playing in Larry's car.

CUT TO:

NIGHT EXT. THE LOT

Larry and Mia walk to stage 6

LARRY
So we're just going to check out stage 6, take some quick shots and then get the hell out of here, I'm already freaked out just being here.

As they approach stage 6 a fog starts to roll in, they notice some men in suits outside the stage so Larry guides Mia to the back entrance.

MIA
Don't worry the guard knows we're here, and I left Mikey a message on his phone.

LARRY
Oh great now if something happens to you Mikey will blame me!

CUT TO:

NIGHT INT. STAGE 6

They approach the back of the stage, Larry's pass allows them to enter the back door oddly enough. The stage is dark with only the walkways dimly lit. They notice some people going in and out of a what looks like a set. They sneak up and notice the door that mysteriously disappeared is back. Larry looks at Mia as they both sneak in and go down a staircase which leads under the stage, to a maze of corridors.

LARRY
This definitely was not here before, I don't get it, how did this maze of hallways get here, and how the hell did I or anybody for that matter not ever see this shit.

The corridors seem endless, bigger than the actual stage. It's as if an entire underground system of corridors and rooms go on for as far as the eye can see.

MIA
How the fuck can this even be possible? This is freaking crazy, it goes on forever! It's like a Salvador Dali maze down here, this is some trippy shit, you weren't lying.

Mia is visibly frazzled and gives Larry a scared bewildered look. He returns the look and grabs her hand as they walk down a greenly lit cement corridor. Larry tries to open the first door on his right. It's locked. Mia snaps a few photos of the crazy maze of corridors which appears to have no end in sight. Larry then tries a double door, which opens and they hesitantly walk in. As they step in floor lights turn on illuminating there steps as they walk. They walk on a red carpet, the hallway is also a red velour.

They walk slowly turning around once in a while, scared to death. Finally they approach a room with four modern chairs, lights in the room turn on as they enter. The chairs are facing the other two. Behind the chairs on the far wall is a red curtain.

CUT TO:

NIGHT INT. RED ROOM

A voice comes out on a sound system

VOICE
Good evening Mr.Ruskin, Miss Fiero have a seat.

Mia and Larry jump a little look around, wonder where the voice is coming from.

MIA
Who the hell are you? And I hate to sound cliche but how the hell do you know my name?

VOICE
My name is David Nestor Horsley. Of course we know your name, we've been watching your career for a while, you are quite a talented gaffer, with amazing potential.

LARRY
Ooh like Nestor the Christmas Donkey I love that movie!

MIA
Ooo yeah I do to! Can't believe you've seen Nestor the Christmas Donkey! I don't think it was made by this studio, maybe that's why hardly anybody has seen it.

LARRY
Totally! My first dogs name was Nestor! What a trip.

MIA
That is trippy kinda spooky now, in this sitch.

VOICE
Can you two please just have a seat, this is no joke you two are trespassing and have no idea what you have stumbled onto.

MIA
Well that's not entirely true, you and your buddies are into some weird shit. For one, a fucking oddly strange monopoly on the film business right now and for like the last 60 years. Everyone that goes up against you ends up bankrupt, you try to manipulate the market, not so discretely I might add, you pretty much cornered the toy market. Uh yeah and what about all the missing homeless men and the super creepy experiments or whatever your doing to them!

Larry interrupts Mia

LARRY
Hey wait are you related to David Nestor Horsley founder of the F.K.Rocket film company.

VOICE
Why yes Larry originally Nestor Film Company now

LARRY
Wow now Skyland Productions! But Nestor was founded in 1911. Either you are Jack Juniors son or one hell of an old fuck!

Four men in suits come out of an unseen door to the right of the curtain. They gesture for Mia and Larry to have a seat. The men in suits are menacing so they both walk back a bit.

VOICE
Would you two please have a seat, I will join you in a second.

The voice of Nestor has gotten a bit sterner and agitated, so Larry and Mia have a seat. Nestor comes out of another hidden door to the left of the curtain. He strides in slowly, mechanically, dressed in a black pin stripe suit. Nestor's hair is slicked back he wears oval glasses with a silver tint which hides his eyes. He seems in his mid forties, very polished and somewhat handsome.

He walks in and takes a seat in front of Mia and Larry, adjusts his suit and smiles at Larry and Mia.

NESTOR
Well where do I begin?

Nestor crosses his legs and grins, Larry and Mia look at each other quizzically

LARRY
For starters why are your creepy henchmen following me and trying to kill me?

Nestor smiles looks at Larry and Mia

NESTOR
Nobody is trying to kill you Larry, we were just taking precautions, seeing if you decided to talk to the press or any agency that could put a strain on our flawless reputation.

LARRY
Well running me off the road isn't exactly just watching me, and flawless reputation, doubt that Nestor old chum.

NESTOR
Larry let me be blunt

LARRY
By all means I like blunt, do you like blunt Mia

MIA
I do

NESTOR
You recently stumbled onto something you know absolutely nothing about; what you perceived as a weird diabolical experiment was nothing more than a common blood transfusion.

LARRY
On a soundstage at three in the morning! Yeah no that was no blood transfusion!

NESTOR
Let me finish please, I will let you state our opinion or allow you to ask anything you wish, but simply allow me the chance to explain to you what actually has transpired. Our founder and CEO of Skyland and Skyland productions as you know is a very secretive person. He does however have extensive medical issues that we would rather treat here, rather than in a traditional hospital setting. And yes he might be going through some highly unusual or experimental treatments, I assure there is nothing illegal or nefarious about his treatments. Jack is a beloved man, creator of Skyland Park and Studio; he has created an empire, And yes Miss Fiero, he has brought joy to millions, not to mention the tens of thousands he employs. Or what about the millions in revenue he brings into our beloved state. He also keeps the film industry afloat in times of need.

LARRY
Sucking the life out of someone, to keep an empire running or bringing in all the fucking revenue in the world is no excuse to exploit the underclass, and what it looked to me.. actually killing someone.

NESTOR
The sacrifice of a few for the prosperity of millions outweighs any social issues or liberal hangups you have.

MIA
Bullshit! That’s not a decision for you or anybody to make. So you admit you sacrifice or whatever you call it to save fucking Skyland?

NESTOR
No that’s not it all we have killed no one. Let me explain this in another way.

As Nestor is talking metallic wrist and ankle restraints shoot out of the chairs Mia and Larry are sitting on. They instantly struggle.

MIA
Hey what the fuck is this! You crazy deranged fuck!

They both feel a prick on there wrists.

LARRY
Holy shit what was that? Mia did you feel that, they just pricked us with something. Oh my god this prick just pricked us!

NESTOR
Calm down it's just a mild sedative. Now since you two obviously won't listen to reason, let me show you in true Skyland fashion what you are truly dealing with.

The chairs mechanically bump and start to move. They are on sort of track that was hidden until now. Mia and Larry's chairs move on the track and head toward the red curtain, they both struggle but are mortified and intrigued at the same time.

NESTOR (CONT'D)
Enjoy this quick tour of our facilities, then maybe you will have a better understanding of our work and perhaps then we will be able to have a more constructive conversation.

MIA
Larry I'm not digging this one bit, not sure what was in that shot but man I feel weird. Now we have to go on some psychotic Its A Small World ride with fucking Nestor the Christmas donkey.

LARRY
I'm so sorry Mia this is really not the way I pictured this going down, they're not going to hurt us, people know we're here it's going to be alright.

Nestor is laughing in the background as Mia and Larry enter the red curtain and the room becomes black.

FADE OUT.

INT. NIGHT STAGE 6 SKYLAND MIND WARP TOUR RIDE

Mia and Larry move slowly as they pass through the curtain, the room is black, then the voice of a famous actor and beloved Skyland character starts playing as a giant screen lights up with the logo of Skyland park. The chairs spin slowly then stop and land in front of the screen.

ACTORS VOICE
Hi visitors and guests of Skyland Studios, welcome to a most private and intimate tour of Skyland park, in its past and future endeavors. You have been specially chosen to see and learn about the inner workings of this beloved studio and theme park. I am honored to be your humble tour guide and narrator for this amazing and sometimes life changing tour. Skyland studios was founded by Jack Lindsay and his partner David Horsley Jr. in 1937. David Horsley senior co founder of Nestor Studios which was founded in 1911 is the precursor of what now is Skyland Studios

The screen lights up with black and white photos of Nestor Studios. The chairs start to move and the screen becomes bigger and bigger and extends what seems like infinity as a warped history of the studio is being projected. Larry and Mia notice another pinching injection, as they move along.

MIA
Larry this is a terrible first date! I feel like I'm being date raped by some creepy Skyland cookie monster with bad drugs. I'm not going to fuck you Nestor!

They both become drowsy yet still alert

CUT TO:

CLOSE UP OF LARRY AND MIA'S EYES AS CAMERA WIDENS OUT IT CIRCLES AROUND BOTH OF THEM CREATING A FEELING OF ANXIETY

CUT TO:

Larry and Mia picking up pace as their chairs constantly rotate and move around twists and turns. As they progress music starts to play and they enter a new room. It appears to be a lab setting. We see animatronic lab scientists hover around beakers and with various neon colors and elaborate machines.

ACTORS VOICE
We now enter the new age of science and technology, where Skyland industries has discovered ways to enhance and even prolong life...And then the discovery of the anomaly directly below us, which has spear headed our new innovations in science and medicine and multi dimensional portals

Narration trails off and becomes background noise. The drugs are wearing off Mia, she notices her surroundings and realizes her hand with some effort can be worked out of the restraints. Mia is skinny and limber she works her way out of the remaining restraints. She jumps up and runs to Larry who is still very drugged. She can't free Larry so she starts to panic, looks around and starts to pull out wires and cables destroying everything around her. Larry's chair stops, she bashes the back where she sees a sort of control panel as she bashes it, his restraints release and pop open, with a strange noise. Lights are flashing and still seem to hold Larry in a trance.

MIA
Get up Larry! Larry! Cmon lets get the hell out of here! Wait what inter dimensional what now?

Larry responds a little, Mia smacks Larry in the face which wakes him wake up even more, while listening to this strange tour guide! She keeps smacking him becoming more frantic. He reaches out and stops the last smack.

LARRY
Alright already that hurts! I was enjoying these drugs, kind of reminded me of this peyote trip I had back in Peru when I was just out of college trying to find myself and...

MIA
You'll find your ass in a straightjacket if we don't get the hell out of here!

Larry gets up and is woozy Mia catches him, they look around and see no real way out so they just start running. They run through the endless maze of monitors while the images that are projected start to glitch. As they are running Larry stumbles and falls to his right. He uses his hands to steady himself. As he is steadying himself he notices the edges of a panel. He traces the edges and pulls in the center. Mia see's Larry and helps him pry open this panel. They both manage to pry out the panel. After pulling away a nest of wires they notice a corridor behind the panel. They pull away more panels, enough to climb through. Both climb through and now notice they are in a neon lit corridor lined with doors which seems to have no end in sight.

CUT TO:

INT. NIGHT STAGE 6 MAZE OF CORRIDORS AND LABS

Mia and Larry hesitantly start walking notice some of the doors have markings above the door. Larry tries the door to his right marked acquisitions. They pass by room after room with small safety glass windows at eye level. They look into one, notice a man sleeping on a small bed in a jail cell like environment. He's dressed in a navy green jump suit. As they peer into more rooms, they notice men of various ages inhabit the rooms. Larry and Mia look at each other wide eyed, Larry grabs Mia's hand and they both start jogging down the hallway. They come to a split and decide to go right, not seeing a sign marked labs A-F. They come up to a lab with a big glass window and notice two men in modern lab coats working intently in front of two large unusual computer monitors with odd wave forms and visuals.

LARRY
We need to ask these gentlemen a few questions

MIA
Are you crazy we need to get the hell out of here!

LARRY
Do you see a way out? We are trapped we need to know how to get out of here, maybe one of these guys will help us.

Mia gives Larry a stressed look but nods, they enter the lab, the two lab scientists still pay no attention to them. Larry goes up to one and swings his chair around to face them. The scientist looks at Larry and Mia with a weird grin. His face in unusually pale and his eyes are a bright green.

LAB SCIENTIST
Crab nohn mahn flack?

Mia and Larry look at him and take a step back. The lab scientist touches something on his left shoulder.

LAB SCIENTIST (CONT'D)
How may I be of assistance

LARRY
Yeah hi just looking for the way out of here.

The other lab scientist turns around and hits his shoulder button too. His movements are very odd.

LAB SCIENTIST 2
Well I believe I can help you with that, are you level six or nine?

LARRY
Level six we just got turned around and accidentally wound up here. We're both new and just figuring out protocol

The two lab guys give each other a look and smile at Mia and Larry. Lab scientist two touches his shoulder again, and looks at Mia then Larry again.

LAB SCIENTIST 2
I would be more than happy to show you both the way to the blue levels

He gets up and motions for Larry and Mia to follow, while the other lab scientist continues working. Mia and Larry hesitantly follow this odd character. He exits right as they follow behind him. He looks back at them once in a while smiling beckoning them to follow him. He guides them to what appears to be elevators. The buttons are in a star configuration, some go up some down, some left and right then others angled up in left and right angles. As the lab coat guy is pressing the center button his body starts to pulsate.

MIA
Am I crazy or is this guy actually becoming blurry? It's like he's out of focus.

As the lab coat guy presses the center button the elevator becomes open, but no visible doors seem to open, it's just open revealing a shiny white elevator. Lab coat guy motions for them to enter. They both enter keeping distance of this man who is seemingly going in and out of focus. As they enter the elevator shuts in a blink of an eye, and in front of them a new star pattern emerges but this time with colors. They notice a blue button that is towards the top.

CUT TO:

NIGHT INT. ELEVATOR

LARRY
My instincts are telling me blue is the way to go, what do you think?

MIA
Yeah sure blue, what the hell! It's not like I have a lot of experience with inter dimensional elevators.

LARRY
True, this is definitely an Alice in Wonderland type moment, lets go for it blue it is!

Larry pushes a blue button on the two above the clear center button. There is no sensation of movement the door just opens and reveals a hallway with a light blue light lighting the way. They step out and head to what looks like a double door.

CUT TO:

DAY EXT. BEACH

As they step through the swinging double door they are suddenly in a sunny blue sky, white sand beach with people walking around, some lounging on beach chairs under umbrellas. Some people are taking leisurely strolls along the waterfront. Small breakers reveal a calm aqua blue water beach with a brilliant sun on the horizon. Everyone around them pays no notice to them as they walk into this amazing setting. They walk past a small boardwalk and notice a row of cabanas. Mia grabs Larry and they head to the cabanas. They walk into a cabana and notice swimwear thats seems like its from the sixties. Mia notices a womens suit hanging, she picks it up and smiles.

MIA
What do you know it just happens to be my size! Hmmm

Larry picks up a mens suit as Mia takes off her dress and underwear, kicks off her heels and puts on the suit, he tries not to stare but Mia is stunning.

LARRY
Hey what are you doing?

MIA
What does it look like? Putting on a suit, a very cute one at that I might add! Come on Larry when's the last time you went to an inter dimensional beach? Put that suit on lets go exploring, this is nuts!

LARRY
You keep saying inter dimensional, you're having fun aren't you?

MIA
Well yeah the whole drugging thing was kind of a buzz kill, but this is really exciting, don't you think? I mean just the fact this place exists is mind boggling to say the least.

Larry is stunned as he holds the mens suit in disbelief and gawks at Mia. She notices him staring, smiles, finishes putting on her suit and walks up to him and gives him a kiss ands walks out of the cabana.

MIA (CONT'D)
Hurry up!

Larry quickly changes and exits the cabana and takes a place by Mia as they watch people and couples walk past them. Mia grabs Larry's hand and guides him towards the waters edge. They walk along the water front and Mia walks into the water up to her waist. She looks back at Larry and motions for him to come in.

MIA (CONT'D)
Oh my god the water is amazing! This is incredible!

Larry walks up to Mia but as he does she dives in and goes further out. Larry follows. They both go out to about neck deep. Mia is glistening in the sun. They get in close and embrace. Mia puts her face up to Larry's ear.

MIA (CONT'D)
What is this place? This makes me question my very existence, why are we here, is this by design?

Larry holding Mia looks at her intently

LARRY
It's definitely not easy to explain, I vaguely remember something about the discovery of an anomaly in that warped tour. I think this whole studio sits on some sort of energy source that somehow Horsley and his buddies have managed to harness. I do feel like we are being manipulated but why and for what?

MIA
You said you thought you were being followed, sounds more like being observed. Jack and his buddies could have easily taken us out. Escaping was kind of easy, I feel like they wanted us to see this. This is fucking intriguing and a little scary at the same time. I don't want to get the life sucked out of me so they can sustain some life sucking entity, so an elite group of people can go on living for ever.

LARRY
Why an elite group of people?

MIA
It's always and elite group of people, come on Larry you've seen enough movies to know that. They sacrifice those homeless guys so they can live in this paradise.

LARRY
Maybe, that's definitely part of whats going on but with a lot of holes.

MIA
Well what ever, holes need to be filled, I'm still going to enjoy this place.

Mia grabs Larry and they both dive under the water. They hold hands and walk back to the beach. They sit down on two beach recliners under a blue striped umbrella. As they are reclining a handsome young man in white shorts and white shirt approaches them.

MAN IN WHITE
Sorry to bother you two but was wondering if you two are staying for the dinner service?

Mia looks at Larry then at the man in white then smiles

MIA
Why yes that sounds lovely thank you.

MAN IN WHITE
Fantastic, drinks and dinner start soon, just head up to the beach house after changing.

Man in white points to a Craftstman style white beach house with a giant front porch for dining just past the boardwalk path.

MIA
I guess we are going to dinner

LARRY
Great great I wonder what inter dimensional food tastes like!

MIA
That’s the spirit, now you’re getting it!

They both change back into their clothes in the cabana and head to the beach house for dinner. Another young man in white shows them to a table that overlooks the beach as the sun is setting, creating a beautiful red orange sunset. They both sit and stare at each other more at ease but still remain wary. A waiter approaches them.

EXT. SUNSET THE BEACH HOUSE

WAITER
Hello I am G may I interest you two in some cocktails or wine before dinner? Our cocktail of the evening is a twist on the Mojito

Mia and Larry look at each other and shrug, Mia smiles

MIA
Mojito's sound perfect, is that okay with you dear?

LARRY
Yes dear just splendid

The waiter smiles and leaves to get the drinks. He comes back with two Mojitos.

MIA
Cheers

They touch glasses and take a sip, Mia rolls her eyes and smiles

MIA (CONT'D)
Damn thats good!

Waiter comes back and looks at Mia and Larry

WAITER
The chef has taken the liberty to make something special for you two this evening, I hope it's to your liking.

Servers come back with several beautiful dishes and place them on the table. Larry and Mia look at the spread wide eyed, they are hesitant but begin eating.

LARRY
This salmon is out of this world and this what is this

Larry holds up a shrimp roll wrapped in rice paper. Mia gorges on a mango beet salad and is in heaven. They both are so engaged in the food they barely notice Nestor walk up and stand in front of them smiling.

NESTOR
Well hello you two may I join you?

Nestor sits before they respond, another server rushes in and gives Nestor a drink. Nestor crosses his legs sits back takes a sip of his drink and looks at Larry and Mia amused.

LARRY
Hey Nestor where have you been? This food is fucking amazing!

MIA
Yeah sorry we had to skip out on the tour, it was giving me a bit of a headache.

NESTOR
Quite alright, however you guys did do quite a bit of damage and managed to see some things reserved for a select few, but I'm glad you found your way here. Beautiful isn't it!

MIA
Well that's one way to describe the it. So Ness honey, I vaguely remember hearing something about an anomaly, extending lifespans, scientific breakthroughs, what's that all about?

NESTOR
Well if you would have stayed on the tour, you two would have learned about how young David Horsley junior stumbled onto something amazing at Nestor studios backlot while hiking around with his faithful dog Lemon. Lemon wandered into a cave followed by David junior, there they came across something amazing and unexplainable.

FADE OUT.

DAY INT. FLASHBACK NESTOR BACKLOT 1911

We see a young David Horsley Jr. Walking his dog Lemon in a meadow which was Nestor studios before it was fully developed. A western is being shot in the background. David Junior is around 10 years old, Lemon his faithful Australian shepherd starts to run ahead of David. They run past trees and come upon a grassy hilly area. A small cave entrance barely noticeable is nestled under a giant oak tree. Lemon is drawn to the opening, David runs after him.

DAVID JR.
Lemon! Come back here! That could be a mountain lion cave! Lemon

Lemon looks back at David but doesn't listen he goes into the cave, David runs in after him.

Lemon stops a few feet into the cave as though he is waiting for David. The cave is oddly illuminated. As David steps in he stands by Lemon in complete awe. The cave is immense, a beautiful shimmering blue lake sprawls out for what seems like miles. In the center of the lake there is a small island with a willow tree growing in the middle. A light shines down onto the willow from an unknown source. The tree is bathed in white light which makes the lake even bluer.

FADE OUT:

EXT. SUNSET THE BEACH HOUSE CONT.

NESTOR
David Junior formed a symbiotic bond with what David thought was the tree, but what we now know to be the anomaly. Somehow the anomaly knew what David loved and desired and made him feel comfortable and was able to generate whatever he desired.

LARRY
Did or does the entity or anomaly or whatever you call it need human interaction to survive?

NESTOR
That’s a good question, but we’re not really sure, we don’t know where it originated from or how long it’s been here. For all we know it’s been here since the dawn of man. It has survived without us but seems content to assist or enable us to harness it’s power.

MIA
Do you communicate with it? Does it want anything in return? And the big question is why do use it to suck the life out of people? Does it feed off people, suck their life essence?

NESTOR
What Larry saw yes was the life essence being drawn out to cure Jack but it did not kill the sacrificial lamb so to speak.

NESTOR (CONT'D)
Once there life essence is nearly depleted the anomaly gives them a new lease on life, which Larry would have seen if would have stayed and witnessed the entire procedure. The man you saw was a drug addicted mentally unstable individual. He was born again after the procedure, clean of addiction and any mental issues he once had. After the cleansing he is offered a new life. He can choose to become anything he so desires, lab tech, employee of this level and countless other positions. He is given the choice of vocation, but somehow the anomaly which we call GIA finds something suitable and to the liking of the individual. There are however side effects, once the procedure is given the donor cannot leave the lot for more than a few weeks, their body becomes fragmented. It’s as though the donors body can’t handle the stress of the outside force beyond this place. They become out of focus and sometimes may appear to take upon different forms if they spend to much time away from the lot.

LARRY
What like the demons i’ve been seeing all over the place! It seems like they are being transformed into something beyond human recognition.

NESTOR
To some they do appear to be demon like, mainly to gifted individuals, but let me assure you they maintain their memory and looks and gain so much more! Mental clarity and purpose, they are no longer despised and hated, an underclass which plagues our city. They are reborn, and given a life span of hundreds of years.

MIA
Immortality?

NESTOR
Not exactly, but decades of happiness and love.

LARRY
So it’s more than just this reincarnation stuff, you can actually have Gia build stages, lakes, mountains, beaches?

NESTOR
Yes Larry but to a certain extent. Gia can only work in the confines of Skyland studios, but can create almost infinite universes stacked on each other. With our help and guidance Gia has created over fifty micro universes all layered in every direction. You took a ride in the elevator, you chose to come three universes up on level three. Coincidence? Maybe but perhaps Gia sensed you both would be comfortable in this environment.

Nestor waves his arm showing them the beach

LARRY
Why did you drug us? We would have gone on your slightly demented tour gladly! Perhaps without the restraints though.

NESTOR
The restraints were necessary, preventing you from hurting yourself. Most people don’t like shots. The drugs are also necessary, they act as a stabilizer for individuals who haven’t undergone the treatment. We are currently on a different plain of existence, your bodies are traveling at a faster rate than ours. The drugs counter act the velocity in which you exist. We are all spinning, us just a tad bit slower.

MIA
Is that why you are able to slow down the aging process?

Nestor smiles takes a sip of his drink

NESTOR
That's definitely part of the equation, but it's a bit more complicated than that, I myself only grasp parts of Gia's true capacity, abilities or true nature for that matter. Is she the wellspring of life? An extension of God, I don't know, but I do know she is a gift of extraordinary power.

LARRY
Why the name Gia?

MIA
It's Italian like me. Short for Giovanna which means God's gracious gift!

LARRY
Oh yeah in Hebrew Jee ah means God is merciful, what a trip.

NESTOR
You two make a formidable team, both of you are correct, I didn't come up with the name, but was told it was an acronym. God Intelligence Anomaly. But Mia's explanation is a much more eloquent and beautiful, and perhaps the Gods truth.

MIA
Many people, including me might think you are exploiting Gia to the benefit of a small majority. Why isn't she used to help mankind?

NESTOR
So you really think our government or scientists wouldn't exploit her? And to what end. Weaponize her, turn her into a tool? Religious fanatics would worship her presidents would turn her into some sort of weapon of mass destruction. Wars would be fought over her, which could eventually cause the end of the world as we know it. Think about the power struggles that would ensue to own such a power.

LARRY
No one person should have such power! Why Skyland?

Nestor leans back and looks at Mia and Larry intently and sighs

NESTOR
I discovered her, destiny call it what you will. I am David Nestor Horsley Jr.! My dog Lemon and I stumbled upon her in 1911. Was I the first ever? Probably not, the Egyptians have writings of something of a discovery that was hidden away in a temple by Amun-Ra. Some historians of the time said Amun was an actual God of the sun and light, who traveled across the sky every day in a burning boat. Amun was said to have a great power which was never disproven. Perhaps the Egyptians were the first intelligent civilization able to harness her power.

MIA
I knew it! You do look good for 125! But what have you done with this power besides living a long life? How many lives have you destroyed to keep this secret hidden?

NESTOR
Skyland is the biggest philanthropist entity on the face of the earth. I give billions to charities every year, I employ half of this state alone and countless others, and a quarter of France, Japan and Australia. It takes time to set up companies around the world without raising suspicion. That’s why we’ve found a medium, film, animation and parks which people love and trust. I eventually want to reveal Gia to the world, but the world is simply not ready yet. Wouldn’t you agree?

Mia and Larry nod a little ponder Nestor

LARRY
Yes and no. There has to be a way to slowly introduce the world to Gia, but unfortunately your probably right, the world is run by morons with varying degrees of prejudice and phobias with only their personal interests in mind. So I guess my big question is what do you want from us?

NESTOR
Well Larry, Mia. You two are great film makers with incredible vision and a unique fresh view of life and art. We would like you two to head up a film division of Skyland studios. You would be able to create unique content with unlimited resources behind you. And maybe just maybe your creations can open up peoples minds to new ways of thinking. Maybe incorporate ways to introduce the idea of Gia through animation or film. Tell my story in a movie as fiction so later the concept isn't so hard to swallow.

MIA
So basically you want us to butter up society? This could take a lot of time, who knows hundreds or even thousands of years!

NESTOR
Exactly! We would have to evolve as a society. We are willing to do whatever it takes, if it means waiting hundreds of years than so be it.

LARRY
What if society never evolves? We are always on the brink of a nuclear war, famine, some sort of disaster, global warming isn't helping. What if we destroy ourselves before we feel confident enough to introduce the world to Gia.

NESTOR
That's just an inevitable possible outcome, but I have faith in mankind.

MIA
I'm glad you do! Wait so Larry and I might have a job that will last hundreds of years centuries even? Man I'm lucky if I can work more than two years straight in this business. Thats hell of job security! Why us?

Nestor smiles and takes a sip of his drink and lifts his glass in cheers.

NESTOR
Don't answer me now, take you time enjoy it here for a while, explore. Months here are virtually minutes outside of Skyland.

Nestor pulls two small metallic cards with chains from his pocket and puts them on the table, grabs another cylinder like container from his pocket and puts it on the table.

NESTOR
These pass cards will allow you access to the elevator and to all levels with the exception of a few off limits at this time. This vial of liquid will keep your body in stasis, you both have to take a teaspoon every week or you will experience headaches dizziness and hallucinations. There are rooms for you both in this beach house. There are phones in your rooms call me anytime, for absolutely anything. I mean anything.

Larry and Mia look at each other and pick up their glasses and cheer Nestor.

FADE OUT.

NIGHT INT. BEACH HOUSE ROOM

Mia sits on the corner of a king size bed staring out a double door that has a view of the beach. Larry stands by the double door looks out into the sunset. The room is furnished with a comfortable beach house vibe.

MIA
I'm not spending the night in this room alone. I'm still way freaked out and you are not leaving my side! Even though I feel like I'm in the fucking Hamptons or something.

LARRY
Yeah this is definitely a lot to take in, I feel like I'm dreaming but it's not a nightmare. Still a bit skeptical about Nestor and his intentions.

MIA
A bit! Just a bit skeptical! Holy shit Larry this is fucking nuts!

Mia sees a book on the coffee table next to Larry it has gold writing on the cover. Mia picks it up. Larry interested sits down by her and they look at the cover. It has a gold G with a circle around the G

CLOSE UP OF THE BOOK

Mia fingers through the book

MIA (CONT'D)
Well this will be helpful! It's like a guide for dummies on how to navigate this place.

LARRY
I am intrigued but tired as hell, do you mind if I take off my clothes and crash?

Larry strips to boxers and gets in bed. Mia strips to her underwear as well, gets in bed next to Larry turns on an overhead reading lamp

MIA
Yeah no problem I'm going to stay up a for a while and do some reading

Larry mumbles something rolls over and almost immediately falls to sleep. Mia starts to read.

FADE OUT.

INT. MORNING BEACH HOUSE ROOM

Larry wakes to find Mia reading the book while drinking coffee and eating an eggs Benedict.

LARRY
Morning have you slept at all?

MIA
Yeah I mean no, well maybe a little. I ordered you breakfast which is fantastic by the way. This place is amazing, or should I say Gia is amazing. So as far as I can tell from this book, Gia is divided into four basic categories or divisions. The Blue level where we are now is divided into hundreds of sub levels which are constructs of Nestor and his team. This particular place were in now, is basically designed after a memory nestor had as boy, of a place his family went for summer vacations in the Bahamas. Somehow Nestor is connected to Gia with the aid of his team. It's like his mind is uploaded to a mainframe that Gia is connected to, then she maps it out and then starts the creation or build. It can take weeks months or years depending on the complexity and scope of the memory.

Larry gobbles down his breakfast while listening to Mia stunned.

LARRY
Wait so how does she create the actual place, like the water for the ocean, the materials for this beach house, I'm so confused. Like how is she creating matter?

MIA
Thats a good question, I'm not quite sure. Like do cities and oceans and shit just appear out of thin air. We can't visit a build, I think it's off limits, but it's definitely a question for Nestor.
(MORE)

MIA (CONT'D)
This book mainly just tells you how to get around the levels and use the elevators and doors and hallways.

LARRY
Huh doors and hallways?

MIA
Yeah the elevator takes you to various created levels. The doors from what I can tell can take you to actual places in the past and hallways represent transitions. The longer the hallway the longer or greater the transition. So I think if we enter a doorway in the past then enter a hallway it jumps you in time depending on how far down the hallway you go.

LARRY
So like a short hallway could be a jump of like an hour, day or week? And a long hallway

MIA
Yeah a long hallway can be a month or year or even longer! It’s not super clear, it’s not like this book breaks it down by feet or inches. It’s like Gia assumes or whoever wrote this book thinks you’ll just pick it up instinctively. It’s almost saying go try it out and you’ll just get the hang of it, in not so many words.

LARRY
Fucking A

MIA
Fucking A is right, lets go check this place out Larry!

LARRY
So what should we do first? Or where should we go? I’ve always wanted to see California in the sixties, so much cool music and art and experimental film.

MIA
Hmmm yeah that would be cool, but I'm kind of thinking way even before that! Nestor mentioned Amun Ra in ancient Egypt had a connection with Gia. Or the Renaissance, which happens to be my favorite time period. Lets talk to the first people who might have encountered Gia and get a better feeling of how she has evolved and affected or even changed mankind.

LARRY
I thought it's not actual time travel but more of a representation or memory of a particular time period. More like a recreation.

MIA
Yeah that's where it gets unclear with doors, hallways and elevators. I think the elevator takes us to a level then we enter a hallway and choose a door, the further down the hallway the further back in time.

Larry looks at Mia puzzled, fingers through the book and reads a passage

LARRY
Lets just go get our feet wet. Lets take the elevator to the green level which according to this is around the sixties take a left at the hall and go about sixty doors and see where we get. Then we can go to Egypt or the Victorian age or whatever era you said.

MIA
Renaissance but whatever. Okay lets do it.

CUT TO:

INT. DAY BEACH HOUSE HALLWAY AND ELEVATOR

Mia takes the book out of Larrys hands puts it in her purse backpack and they head to the elevator at the end of the hallway in the beach house. Mia passes her card over the the only button on the elevator.

No door opens to the visible eye, but an open elevator with the tree pattern stands before them. They both get in. Larry hits the green button six buttons down and diagonally to the left. The lighting in the elevator glows white as Larry and Mia look blurry to each other then stops. An opening appears left of the tree, in it appears to be a change of clothing. Mia smiles at Larry hands him some clothes. They both change, Mia puts the book into a leather purse as Larry is putting on his sixties style outfit. He finds his bag of weed in his pants pocket.

LARRY
This might come in handy!

Larry puts the bag of weed in his man purse which he rifles through and finds a set of Volkswagen car keys, money and a few other things.

MIA
Oh my god you look so cute as a hippy!

Larry looks Mia up and down nods

LARRY
You look absolutely beautiful! The sixties really really suit you!

The elevator opens they exit and find themselves on the top floor of a parking garage. The top floor overlooks Burbank, you can see the Hollywood sign in the background. Mia and Larry walk out into a sunny day.

DAY EXT. PARKING GARAGE

Larry notices a few cars parked on this top level, notices a Volkswagen square back parked not far from the elevator. He gives Mia an inquisitive look, takes the keys from his purse and walks over to the car. He tries the key on the driver door, it opens.

LARRY
What do you know it works! How thoughtful of Gia to gives us a car! Wouldn’t be my first choice but what the hell!

Larry gets in leans over and opens the passenger door for Mia. She smiles and gets in. Larry turns the key, the VW sputters to life and then dies.

LARRY (CONT’D)
Really!

He tries again this time gives it some gas, it stays running

MIA
I guess she was just cold! So where are we going? What's the plan man.

Larry futzes around with the sun visor and a pair of Ray Bans fall on his lap, he smiles and puts them on, looks at Mia.

LARRY
Let's go check out LA in the sixties! I grew up in Venice, I always wished I could see it back then, or I mean right now, time wise I mean.

MIA
I knew what you meant dummy! Sounds groovy lets go check out Venice!

LARRY
Right on sister lets go.

Mia rolls her eyes and they set out.

CUT TO:

EXT. DAY DRIVING THROUGH LOS ANGELES

They exit the parking garage notice construction, pass a sign for future sight of Skyland studios. As they drive they find themselves on Sunset Blvd. They pass a bar called the London Fog, then The Whisky A Go Go and see a marque for the Doors. They both look at each other, they keep driving pass the Whiskey and classic Sunset landmarks. Larry keeps heading west towards the beach, takes Sunset into Santa Monica then heads south to Venice beach. Larry parks on Main street in Venice. They both get out of the car amazed at the people and sights. Larry overwhelmed sits on the hood of the car and takes in his surroundings. Mia puts her arm around him and they both look around amazed.

EXT. DAY MAIN STREET VENICE/WALK TO VENICE BOARDWALK

Larry grabs Mia and holds her in front of him in a gentle bear hug and rests his head on her shoulder

LARRY
How is this even possible Mia? There are no words to describe how I feel, well maybe a few!
(MORE)

LARRY (CONT'D)
I’m scared, excited, intrigued, bewildered..

Mia interrupts Larry spins around faces Larry and puts her face close to his

MIA
Why try to explain it or analyze it? Just enjoy it, look at it as a gift, a very fucking odd mind bending gift, but a gift none the less.

Larry smiles then nods gets off the hood grabs Mia’s hand and they start walking to the boardwalk. People and couples smile and look at them as they walk, guys especially notice Mia. Mia and Larry walk down Rose ave and stop on the boardwalk. People of all sorts rush by them as they are standing still.

OVERHEAD SHOT OF MIA AND LARRY AS PEOPLE COMPLETELY ENGULF THEM

FADE OUT.

EXT. WHISKY A GO GO

Larry and Mia pull up to the Whisky pass it and park on Sunset. They walk up Larry finds money in his bag pays the cover and they walk in.

CUT TO:

INT. THE WHISKY A GO GO

P.O.V. OF LARRY HOLDING MIA’S HAND AS HE FOLLOWS HER AS SHE SNAKES THROUGH THE CROWD

Larry and Mia dance and get closer to the stage. Jim Morrison looks directly at Mia as he sings “My Eyes Have Seen You.” He smiles and contorts his body as he’s singing to her. They end their set and Mia and Larry head outside covered in sweat from dancing.

MIA
That was probably no definitely one of the coolest things I’ve ever done! Fucking Jim Morrison was singing to me! He was or wait is so fucking hot!

LARRY
Yeah I'm actually jealous!

As they are talking Morrison walks up behind Larry and puts his arms around him and rests his head on his shoulder.

JIM
Why hello beautiful people

He kisses Larry on the cheek

JIM (CONT'D)
You should never be jealous of this goddess! You fine sir and madam are the true gifts of this universe! Gods walking around pretending to be human!

Jim lets go of Larry and bows to Mia, takes her hand and kisses it

JIM (CONT'D)
But yes she is a vision not of this world! What is thoughst name vision?

Mia smiles and blushes lifts her sun dress and curtsies

MIA
Kind words from a King! Mia and this is Larry

Jim now curtsies back a bit drunkenly

JIM
King I like that! Lord Jim at your service Mia. Larry no no he is no LARRY, Lawrence but no Larry!

They all start to laugh Jim nearly falls over

JIM (CONT'D)
Would you two care to join our little band to drink and smoke all night? Just headed up, just up, Ray where are we going?

Ray lifts his head from another group of people

RAY
Up Mulholland Jim! Were going to Arthurs house!

JIM
Yes Arthurs house! The wonderful mister Lee! Come with please, come you two!

A blonde woman comes and grabs Jim and he starts singing, spinning her in circles

JIM (CONT'D)
To Arthurs house we go, to Arthurs house we go, hi ho my stereo to Arthurs house we go!

Ray walks up to Larry and Mia smiles and puts out his hand

RAY
Hi I'm Ray it's just up Mulholland follow us

Mia looks at Larry and shrugs

LARRY
Cool let's go to Arthurs!

CUT TO:

NIGHT INT. ARTHUR LEE'S HOUSE

Mia and Larry park behind Ray on a long driveway that leads up to modest house nestled on stilts that overlooks Hollywood. They follow a group into the house Jim is singing carrying a bottle of wine in one hand and his other arm is wrapped around the pretty sandy blonde. Arthur leads the way opens the door into a sunken living room nicely furnished with modern and Indian artwork tastefully placed throughout. Tapestries hang from the ceiling give it a warm inviting feeling.

ARTHUR
Welcome to my sanctuary. It's such a beautiful night lets go outside make a fire in the pit and smoke out of the hookah.

RAY
Sounds good to me, Jim?

JIM
Lead the way

Some of the party flop onto the couches inside. Jim, Ray, Arthur, sandy blonde, Asian girl with long black hair, Mia and Larry head out onto the deck.

Outside a fire pit is surrounded by Moroccan style round love seats. Moroccan lamps illuminate the deck. Jim plops down with Sandy blonde while Arthur starts a fire. Ray sits with Asian with long black hair. Mia and Larry sit together in front of a large hookah with four tubes coming out. It is ornate and partially made of what appears to be brass which glimmers in the moon light and the fire which Arthur starts amazingly fast.

ARTHUR
I have some weed somewhere let me go find it.

Arthur is about to go inside

LARRY
No need Arthur I have some in my bag

ARTHUR
Why that is wonderful thank you uh uh

JIM
So sorry everyone this is Lawrence and his lady friend Mia

Everyone says hi and we here a chorus of names shouted back at Larry and Mia. Larry takes out his weed from his leather purse and takes out a big bud.

RAY
Holy shit I can smell that from here! Can I see that?

Mia gives Larry a look, Larry shrugs hands Ray the giant bud. Ray looks at it amazed smells it shakes his head.

RAY (CONT'D)
I've never smelled or seen herb this amazing! Where did you get this?

LARRY
My boy Tye grows it

Mia elbows Larry in the side

JIM
Well we need to get Tye over here man!

LARRY
Yeah he would definitely dig this place!

Larry crumbles the bud up in his hand and packs a giant bowl. Arthur, Jim, Ray and Larry grab a tube and start sucking as Arthur lights the bowl. Larry takes a giant hit and holds it in. Jim, Ray and Arthur take big hits but explode immediately and start coughing. Their eyes are watering, Ray falls to the ground laughing and coughing.

RAY
Holy fucking shit, what the Jesus thats the best weed I've ever smoked in my life!

LARRY
We call it chronic where I come from

Mia elbows Larry again shakes her head, grabs the tube and takes a hit. Asian girl takes a small puff and coughs immediately too. Arthur and Jim start laughing and take a swig of the bottle of wine pass it around. Arthur looks at Larry a little suspiciously.

JIM
Well Ray is a chronic masturbator

They all laugh

JIM (CONT'D)
But Lawrence, Mia I feel like you both are from plastic fantastic LA but are not, does that make sense?

ARTHUR
It does man, like these two are meant to be here but are just passing through, am I right?

Jim distracted starts dancing around the fire.

JIM
Hey Arthur put on "Forever Changes!" It's his new album, It's absolutely genius

Arthur opens a modern cabinet puts on his record. They listen to the first song mesmerized by the lyrics. Arthur disappears into the house comes back with a large tea kettle and a bunch of tea cups on a tray.

ARTHUR
Anyone like a cup of tea? I brewed it last night.

RAY
What kind of tea is it Arthur? Last time I had some of your tea I thought my car was a dragon and it was trying to eat Robbie.

LARRY
I actually had a really heavy trip last time I drank mushroom tea too!

They all look at Larry

JIM
Yeah? Like what happened man do tell

They all take a cup and sip it as Larry starts talking. Arthur smiles drinks a cup like a shot and pours another one for himself and takes a seat by Larry.

LARRY
Well I was resting from a long night at the studio and my room mate made me a cup thinking it would relax me, but she neglected to tell me it was mushroom tea. I was unprepared to say the least.

HIGH SHOT OF LARRY AS HE STARTS HIS STORY, CAMERA MOVES IN A SNAKE LIKE PATTERN TO REVEAL ALL THE LISTENERS OF LARRY'S STORY, ZOOMS IN ON FACES THEN LANDS ON LARRY

Larry keeps telling his story as music gets intense, Jim in transfixed by Larry's story his eyes show signs of amazement.

LARRY (CONT'D)
Then I sank back into my chair and the head of the studios head turned into a distorted giant demon as he towered over me, then I woke up!

RAY
Holy shit thats nuts! Wait you shoot movies man?

MIA
We both do, Larry, sorry Lawrence works for Skyland Studios.

SHOT OF ARTHUR STUDYING LARRY

JIM
What a trip, how you talk about doors is really trippy! Ray and I named the band after William Blakes poem.

RAY
If the doors of perception were cleansed everything would appear

JIM
To man as it is, infinite

ARTHUR
We live on many plains of existence, I know its possible to visit many, especially if our minds are able and open to the possibilities

Larry and Arthur lock gazes

ARTHUR (CONT'D)
Mia can I borrow Lawrence for a minute? There's something I would love to show him in the house

Mia smiles as Larry gets up, Jim takes his place in the love seat

MIA
Of course! Lawrence will do what the Lion of the desert guides him to do.

RAY
Lawrence of Arabia! I love that movie! Don't tell me you worked on it!

CUT TO:

INT. NIGHT ARTHURS BACK ROOM

Larry follows Arthur inside, they pass half naked people kissing on the couch, some passed out. Arthur leads him into a back room. The room is covered in tapestry. Old artifacts hang on the walls and pottery and sculptures abound on shelves. Arthur sits cross legged on floor cushion, motions to Larry to have a seat. Larry is a very relaxed the tea is really kicking in.

ARTHUR
So how is Nestor and Jack doing? Are they still trying to get the world ready for the introduction to Gia?

LARRY
Wow is it that obvious? What gave us away?

ARTHUR
Well the weed for one! But mainly Mia, I can’t exactly explain it, it’s like she’s learning from us. How long have you known her?

LARRY
Well thats hard to say, I’ve been with her for weeks I think, but in reality I’ve only know her from one night at a party we met at. She went to film school with my best friend.

ARTHUR
That’s interesting Nestor sent her to film school.

LARRY
Yeah he want’s us both to head up a film division at Skyland. Oh Jesus you don’t think? I really doubt it, I have such a strong connection to Mia. Man I’m so oblivious to everything.

Larry scratches his head Arthur smiles

ARTHUR
I could be wrong but Nestor is a genius. His plans have been unfolding for centuries, I’m still divided about his true intentions. He always claimed his ambitious plans were for the betterment of mankind, but who made him God? Or why should the fate of the world be left up to him?

LARRY
Exactly! Sorry but not to change the subject, but have you been to the future?

ARTHUR
No Larry we exist in an alternate time line. My life until now has only seen that of what has come before this present moment. I might exist on your present timeline, but I can't visit a timeline in which I already exist.

LARRY
So theoretically you can live in timeline past your death?

ARTHUR
Yes I would think so, but as you know Gia is also able to create alternate universes where we all can live or visit. Our bodies however can reject these alternate universes and we become distorted.

LARRY
Nestor has found a way around these distortions or has created a temporary fix through a breakthrough in a drug.

ARTHUR
Yeah he's been trying to create one for as long as I've known him. I've always known or thought the panacea could be created through natural occurring psychedelics such as mushrooms, peyote or Ayahuasca.

LARRY
Explains a lot about your music!

CUT TO:

EXT. ARTHURS PATIO

Mia, Jim and Ray are having an animated discussion. Mia is really starting to feel the effects of the mushrooms, forgetting where she is.

RAY
So what your telling me is that Jim and I exist in this alternate timeline based on a memory?
(MORE)

RAY (CONT'D)
And that in a future timeline Skyland and Jack Nestor can manipulate various plains of existence with the aid of an unknown entity.

JIM
Man that’s so heavy, so like Gia is like the creator of universes that we can move through? Did she create life.

MIA
Gia is not the creator of life as we know it, at least I don’t think so. She just opens us up to the possibilities of human kinds true potential.

RAY
Woman you are fucking blowing my mind right now! I’ve always known we are wasting our potential! What a trip!

CUT TO:

INT. NIGHT ARTHURS BACK ROOM

Larry sits contemplating

ARTHUR
It’t no coincidence that Mia brought you here. I think Gia is trying to tell you something through Mia. What it is, I’m not exactly sure. Be wary of Jack and Nestor! Hopefully you’ll discover your destiny and purpose? You’ll figure it out, there is more to you than meets the eye my friend!

Arthur gets up and grabs a small black bowl with a small wooden mallet wrapped in leather. An Egyptian symbol on one side and the sun on the other. He hands it to Larry.

ARTHUR (CONT’D)
This was given to me by Amen Ra, it’s a singing bowl. I was one of his advisors for many years until Nestor showed up.
(MORE)

ARTHUR (CONT'D)
Amen Ra had a connection to Gia, he was able to transport himself to other dimensions with the use of this bowl. There were doors but could only be accessed with the aid of this. I never quite mastered the technique, but somehow ended up here when I was twenty one. You use this mallet and slowly put pressure on the edge in a circular pattern.

Arthur demonstrates the technique. As the bowl starts to hum the door behind Arthur start to glow around the edges. He stops. Arthur hands the bowl to Larry who then puts it in his bag.

LARRY
Oh totally like singing bowls or playing a wine glass!

ARTHUR
Exactly! The faster you go the further back you go. Each frequency you create represents about a century of time.

LARRY
Got it, but I can see how hard it would be to land on a specific point in time.

ARTHUR
Don't loose this bowl I might actually want it back one day. Back to Arthur Lee of this dimension. He died when he was my age.

LARRY
I read somewhere that he was fascinated with death. He would always say or predict he was going to die at twenty one, I guess he really did!

ARTHUR
I was able to keep his death a secret and discretely disposed of his body, which was not an easy thing to do I might add. It's as though we aligned naturally. I feel at home in this timeline, perhaps even more than my own. I'm able to create here freely in this amazing time of peace and love!

LARRY
Well super cool name for a band too I might add. How did you play Arthur of the pasts music?

They both laugh

ARTHUR
Good question, I studied his music with a passion. Learning guitar wasn't easy let me tell you, but I think I may have even got a little better than the future me. My latest album "Forever Changes" ironically enough has been well received.

LARRY
Definitely my favorite Love album, even one my favorite albums of all time! Your lyrics make a lot more sense now!

ARTHUR
I was going through a transition in life that I could only express through music. So enough about me what are your plans, you have a lot on your plate so to speak.

LARRY
I'm not sure exactly, this has been our first stop, Mia wants to go back to the Victorian age and then maybe hang with your boy Amen Ra.

ARTHUR
Interesting, be careful visiting Amen Ra, it can be tricky, tell him you were sent by Arthurius and that his life will still shine brighter than the sun. That will peak his interests and you will be welcomed. Be careful around his court they are a paranoid lot. Show no one the bowl even Amen! I passed briefly through the Victorian age with Nestor, connecting with artists, musicians and intellectuals. It was cool. Anyway we should get back to Mia and the others, god only knows what they are talking about!

LARRY
Ha yeah she’s probably planning her life with Jim!

ARTHUR
Yes he does have a profound effect on women!

LARRY
You think!

Larry and Arthur walk outside to an animated discussion between Mia, Jim and Ray. They barely notice Larry and Arthur.

CUT TO:

EXT. NIGHT ARTHURS PATIO

LARRY
Yo Mia what have you guys been up to?

They all stop talking and look at Larry. Ray and Jim walk up to Larry and flank both sides of him.

JIM
Oh if it isn’t Lawrence of the multi verse! Lawrence we want to go with you to Egypt!

Larry and Arthur exchange glances

LARRY
Mia what have you been telling these two? I leave you alone with freak’n Jim Morrison for one minute and you tell him we’re time travelers or some sort of inter dimensional trespassers.

RAY
That does sound cool inter dimensional trespassers, I like that! Jim we need to write a song about it!

LARRY
No way no offense but you and Jim would stick out like a sore thumb in ancient Egypt!

JIM
Uh ah, would not, come on Lawrence! You can’t just show up here with your space weed and stories of multi universes and not expect us to want to tag along.

Larry looks at Mia

MIA
I’m sorry Larry but mushrooms are like truth serum to me, I forgot where I was!

LARRY
Are you kidding me right now? You were supposed to be the level headed one of us both! Galavanting through time with the Doors wasn’t really our plan!

MIA
Well to be honest we never really had a plan. We were just going to observe and maybe learn a little about Gia’s origin but come on Larry this is a lot cooler!

Larry shakes his head as the others look at him like children.

ARTHUR
Well if Jim and Ray are going then I am too, I haven’t been time skipping in a while.

LARRY
Time skipping Arthur? Did you just make that up?

ARTHUR
Maybe

JIM
Alright then it’s settled we’re all going! The Doors well half of them, John and Robbie are crashed out anyways.

LARRY
Okay lets smoke a joint before we go I have to think about this

Larry rolls a super fat joint and lights it. They all smoke as Larry sits down next to Mia. Larry puts on really mellow music. One by one they all eventually pass out. Larry grabs Mia's hand and they sneak out.

FADE OUT.

NIGHT EXT. PARKING GARAGE/ELEVATOR

Larry pulls out his necklace with pass key and elevator is open. They both get in. Mia takes out the guide book looks at the tree counts down the center and presses the second to last button on the bottom in the center of the tree.

(POSSIBLE TRIP TO EGYPT)

MIA
I think this is it.

INT. DAY EGYPTIAN BATH HOUSE

They strip and put on Egyptian garb that is provided. Larry sneaks the contents of his bag into a new one that is period appropriate, he thinks Mia doesn't notice. Door opens to what appears to be a bath house. Naked servant women are walking about tending to clients. Men of what appear to be of high status are having animated discussions. Servant woman notices Mia and Larry approaches them.

WOMAN SERVANT
Please allow me to escort you to the womens bath, it's this way.

MIA
Well we weren't planning on taking a bath but..

Servant woman looks perplexed, Mia senses it not wanting to draws attention.

MIA (CONT'D)
Yes lead the way

Mia follows the servant, another guides Larry to a large bath takes his clothes and bag motions for him to get in.

WOMAN SERVANT TWO
Your things will be in the changing room sir.

END

INT. DAY BLONDEAU TAVERN / NESTOR STUDIOS

Mia takes out period clothes from opening and looks perplexed. She takes out a long form fitting dress from the 1900's with a big hat and boots. Hands Larry a suit with a hat and boots as well.

MIA
Well this does not appear to be the attire of ancient Egypt! More like something out of the 1900'S.

LARRY
Interesting what did we do wrong?

MIA
I think I was suppose to hit the last button on the tree, shit! I think this is time of Nestors first encounter with Gia.

LARRY
Holy shit this is when the Nestor film company was established! Basically we are about to witness the inception one of the first Hollywood film companies! We can get a lot of answers here. We can see how Nestor started, maybe we can find out what his true intentions were or why we are here! We can see how he communicates with Gia, see if this is the path she chose or Nestor manipulated.

MIA
Yeah totally all that's cool, but this is amazing, we get to witness the birth of film itself!

As they are talking the door just opens without any visible doors or noises. They seem to be in a liquor storeroom in the back of a tavern. Mia and Larry finish dressing Larry puts on a hat and they head to the front of the bar. They take a seat at a booth in front of an ornate wood bar. A waiter comes up to them and looks at them curiously.

BARTENDER
What can I get you two? We're about to serve lunch. You two work at the studio?

LARRY
Nestor studios?

BARTENDER
Well yeah don't know of any other studio behind my tavern.

The bartender smiles and points out the window at a set being built. Behind the set there are sprawling hills and trees.

LARRY
Of course Nestor Films. Me and my wife here are looking perhaps to get jobs with Nestor. I'm a cameraman and this here one is one fine

Larry hesitates

MIA
Actress and I'm damn good with a horse!

BARTENDER
Oh you don't say. You need to talk to Victoria and Dorothy. They should be in soon I'll introduce you two. Piltz will be coming in for lunch too, he love my biscuits and gravy?

LARRY
Piltz?

BARTENDER
Yeah Bill Piltz. He and Tom, Tom Harding I think, are the only cameramen I've ever met, but I think there might be one more.

LARRY
Do you know a Mr.Horsley by any chance?

BARTENDER
Of course I do! Bossman Dave comes in every day sits right here

Bartender motions to the booth to his left with his head.

BARTENDER (CONT'D)
Comes in with his boy little Jack, his little shadow. That boy is like a man in a kids body, don't tell anybody but that kid kinda weirds me out a bit. He's too smart for his own good, serious kid that one.
(MORE)

BARTENDER (CONT'D)
He loves that dog of his though, I let Lemon come in with them. Best behaved dod I've ever seen, I love that damn dog but not as much as little Jack does. Anyway can I get you two a couple of lunch specials? A beer or two?

MIA
Sounds lovely

LARRY
Please I'm starving.

The waiter smiles and nods, leaves to go get beers and lunch. As the waiter is serving them a stream of people start entering the establishment. Some are dressed in cowboy attire and some in 1911 garb. One boisterous couple stands out, two women dressed in wide brim hats and riding dresses. They sit in the booth across from Larry and Mia throw there hats on the table, as they are sitting a waitress puts two beers down on their table.

VICTORIA
Why thank you Lynn, I'm a wee bit parched after basically doing all of Dorothy here's riding today!

Lynn smiles as Dorothy gets up from her seat and takes a swipe at Victoria.

DOROTHY
What the hell are you jabbing about! I saved your big ass from being trampled after Windy bucked you!

VICTORIA
What that perfectly executed fall and roll!

DOROTHY
More like a fall and clunk!

Everyone around them starts to laugh

BILL
You both scared the shit out me but it looked amazing! I should know, you two almost landed on my camera after I got the shot of course.

VICTORIA
It's all about the shot with you Bill, I damn near broke my neck!

Mia and Larry watch this interaction and can't help but to stare. Victoria notices them, smiles takes a bow and walks toward their table as they are being served.

WAITER
Hey Vic come and meet these two! I think they're lookin for some work.

VICTORIA
Is that so

Vitoria walks over to Larry and Mia and gives them a once over, smiles and extends a hand to Larry first.

VICTORIA (CONT'D)
Hello there I'm Victoria Forde, my chubby little friend over there is Dorothy, and those two jokers are Bill and Tom.

Victoria points to Tom and Bill they wave and Dorothy smiles and nods. Larry and Mia smile and wave back

LARRY
It's a honor to meet you, I'm Larry and this is Mia. We've heard so much about you, you are a legend of film.

As Larry shakes Victoria's hand he motions for her to sit. She gives him an odd look.

VICTORIA
Well I don't know who've you been talking too, but I'm no legend. Least not yet.

MIA
What I think Larry means
